TREE PLANTING—Mrs. Claud Hill, president of the 186th Street School P-TA, places Liquid Ambar tree in ground during tree planting ceremony commemorating Founder's Day last week. Observing the operation are, left to right, Miss Hilda Jellison, principal; Irma Martinez, A6 student; Meses. James Gauley, Samuel Dow and Leo Wagner, who dedicated the tree; Mrs. James McMillen and Mrs.
Ronald Powell.

186th Street School Gets Tree in P-TA Ceremony

The presenting of a Liquid Am-bar tree to the school was one of the highlights of the Founder's Day meeting of the 186th Street P-TA, on Wednesday, Feb. 11.

Mrs. Leo Wagner presented the tree, which was accepted by Miss Hilda Jellison for the faculty, and Irma Martinez, A6 student for the student body. Mrs. Wagner, a past president, compared the growth of a small tree to the growth of the present Parent-Teacher Association from the time of its founding.

Mrs. Harold Sprankle was presented an honorary life membership for her outstanding work in the 186th Street P-TA. Presenting the award was Mrs. Samuel Dow, past president and present parliamentarian.

The past presidents were the honored guests of the day, and were presented with gifts. Those present included Mesdames Leo Wagner, Clifford Bennett, F. W.
Sutherland, W. D. Ten Eyck, James Gauley, Samuel Dow, Wilbur Early and Claud Hill.

Mr. David Fordham, a member of the faculty, spoke on the subject, "Co-operation."

A nominating committee for next years officers was elected: Mrs. Samuel Dow was elected chairman, with Mesdames W. C.
Attebery, A. B. Pond, Oliver Lang and Miss Hilda Jellison as assistants.

Refreshments followed the meeting with Mesdames David Wood, Phillip Donaher, Harold Sprankle, and R. Hight serving. A large birthday cake in the shape of a book was inscribed with the date of the founding. Bouquets of blue and yellow flowers decorated the tables.
