FORM DRUM CORPS FOR LOCAL YOUTHS

In an effort to bring musical training for all Torrance youths, a drum corps is now being formed under the direction of Mrs. Bettie Thomas, of the Bettie Thomas Studios.

Torrance teen-agers and youngsters from the age of ten years are urged to attend the first meeting of the corps on Saturday, March 7, at 9 a.m.

The drum corps is being organized to give youths who cannot afford the cost of regular lessons an opportunity to get a musical education and to have a good time participating in drum corps activities with their friends, Mrs. Thomas said.

Plans are being made to get Jim Bell, director of the prize-winning Japanese-American Drum Corps, as director of the Torrance group, it was reported.

Meetings will be held every Saturday morning, and all youths interested in participating are urged to attend the initial meeting on March 7, according to Mrs. Thomas.

L. A. Man Killed in Auto Crack-up Here

A Los Angeles man was killed late Saturday when he was crushed between a car and a telephone pole at Normandie Avenue and Carson Street. Two other men were injured in the crash, one critically, police said.

Police disclosed that a car driven by Albert Castro, 24, of Los Angeles, collided with one operated by Robert Wright, 40, of Lawndale. Castro was thrown from his vehicle and against the side of the Wright car, which slid against a telephone pole, crushing Castro to death, police reported.

Wright and a passenger in his car, Ernest Salazar, 16, of Los Angeles, were taken to Harbor General Hospital, where Wright remained unconscious for some time. Hospital officials reported that he sustained a leg fracture and injuries to head and chest. Salazar was treated for cuts and bruises and a leg injury.

Free Concert Slated Tonight

"The Student Prince Overture" by Sigmund Romberg will number among the selections to be presented tonight by the Cadet and Junior groups of the Torrance Area Youth Bands at the Civic Auditorium, according to James Van Dyke, director.

There will be approximately 90 young musicians of Torrance and surrounding communities participating in the program which starts at 8 p.m., he added.

MOVES OFFICE—William Garrity, district agent for the Farmers Insurance Group, this week announced the opening of his new office at 2516 Torrance Blvd., across from the Jim Dandy market. His office was formerly located at the corner of Torrance Blvd. and Madrid Ave. Garrity has been the Farmers representative in Torrance for the past three years.

Smith's Floor Covering Moves To New Location

Smith Floor Covering Co. will open for business Monday at a new location, 2520 Torrance Blvd., across from the Jim Dandy market, according to Roy Smith, owner of the store.

Specializing in floor coverings and wall paper, the business was opened here two years ago. The move this week marks an expansion in the business.

"Our ultra-modern, new store gives us more display room and a better opportunity to serve the needs of Torrance residents," stated Smith.

A resident here for two years, Smith is married and has one child. He is a member of the Torrance Optimists Club.

School Holds Open House On March 4

The Torrance Co-operative Nursery School will hold open house at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., on Wednesday, March 4, from 9:30 to 11 a.m., it was revealed today.

The community is cordially invited to attend, Mrs. Barbara Hardinghaus stated.

"This will be an excellent opportunity for interested persons to observe the school routine and learn about the activities of the children," she said.

A number of the participating nursery school mothers will be on hand to serve as hostesses.

TOO MUCH TALK

A woman in Pikeville, Kentucky, called the police desk sergeant on duty to find out why a long-distance conversation with her sister had ended so abruptly. Upon investigation, officers found that the sister's husband, tiring of the conversation, had ripped the telephone from the wall.

BATH

City Health Officer A. F. Kemp reported that the strangest request he got this year from a woman who asked him to "come out to my house and make my brother take a bath." He reported he had to reject the request—because such action would exceed his authority.
