Bruins Tied Wildcats and For 1st Place

The Wildcats and the Bruins are tied now for first place in the boys' grade school basketball league tournament play, according to Elmer Moon, director.

Both teams won in games played last Saturday, and now stand with six games won and none lost in the season.

The Wildcats whipped the Streaks, 42-16, and the Bruins walloped the Cubs, 47-14, in Saturday's games.

Other team standings are Panthers, four wins, two losses; Streaks, three wins, three losses; Lions, two wins, four losses; Nativity, two wins, four losses; Cubs, one win, five losses; and Greens, with no wins and six losses.

The Lions will take on the Cubs at 10 a.m. this Saturday, and the Bruins will tackle the Wildcats at 11 a.m. After lunch, at 1 p.m., the Greens and Nativity will tangle, and the Panthers and Streaks take to the boards at 2 p.m.

Amaranth Initiates 2 Members

Helen Wilson, Royal Matron, and Frank Schmidt, Royal Patron, presided over the recent meeting of the Lomita Court No. 61, Order of Amaranth.

Two candidates, Luana M. Collins and Iris Eckstrom, were initiated.

Gordon Mothersell was installed as Associate Patron to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Leonard Babcock.

Margaret McTaggart, Grand Chief Commissioner of Appeals of the Grand Court, was present and received Grand Honors.

After the meeting, the guests were served refreshments from tables decorated with a Valentine motif, it was disclosed. C. Esther Colbert was food chairman.

Missionaries to Address Meetings At Lomita Church

Mrs. Harold Amstutz, who, with her husband, has served as a missionary in the Belgian Congo, Africa, will be one of the speakers at the Missionary Convention in progress at the Lomita Missionary Church.

The missionary party includes Mr. Amstutz, who has been superintendent of the station in the Congo, taking care of the Church work, the Regional Schools and the building program; Miss Ethel Smith, missionary to India; and Miss Mildred Wanner, R. N. who completed a full term of service in Ecuador, South America. Rev. Tillman Habegger, District Superintendent of the Western Dist. of the Missionary Church Association, will present the missionaries.

The missionaries will show colored slides of their work along with their addresses.

The meetings will be held at 7:30 each evening except Saturday, February 25 to March 1.

The public is cordially invited. night's gathering.

Keystone Man Crushed to Death In Auto Mishap

William Mitchell, 29 of 616 E. Carson St., was killed early Monday in a spectacular two-car collision at Western Ave. and Carson St.

The car driven by Mitchell collided with one operated by Albert W. Hogue, 22, a Navy enlisted man.

Hogue and two passengers in his car, Richard Swengard, 20, and Delbert Foster, 19, also Navy men, were treated for minor injuries at Harbor General Hospital.

Mitchell's body was shipped to Warwick, R. I., where his wife was visiting at the time of the accident.

Now Serving on Ship in Hawaii

Seaman Apprentice Carl Leon Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Hall of 21505 Berendo ave., is currently stationed in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, board the USS Radford, a destroyer escort.

Hall, who enlisted for four years duty, has signed for two years duty overseas. He is a native San Pedro. He attended elementary schools, Dana Junior High and was attending San Pedro High School when he entered the service.

He enlisted in September and received his basic training at San Diego. He had been taking printing in school prior to enlisting and was active in sports, excelling in football and swimming. He also was an enthusiastic sports-fisherman.

He has written his parents that he and the crew members have been enjoying Honolulu and other recreational facilities marking the stay in port.
