

Easter Week Sports Set For Children

A full week of activities for Carson and Keystone area children to participate in during their Easter vacation has been announced by Mrs. Dorothy Kemper, director of Avalon-Sepulveda Park, 23410 Catskill Ave.

Beginning on Saturday, March 28, the following games, contests, and activities have been arranged:

Saturday—Chess, checkers and maze; Monday—Junior track meet at 10 a.m.; checkers at 2 p.m.; Tuesday—Powder Puff playday at Sportsman's Park for girls 8 to 11 years beginning at 9:30 a.m.; basketball, free throw and carems in the afternoon at the local park; Wednesday—ping pong and jump rope contests in the morning, Second Annual Junior Flower Show in the afternoon; Thursday—All Wheels day with races for all wheeled vehicles at 10 a.m., hop scotch and jacks contest in the afternoon; Friday—Teetherball in the morning, softball in the afternoon; Saturday—Easter Egg Hunt for youngsters under 12 years at 10 a.m., Easter Egg Roll and Flower Show for teenagers in the afternoon; Sunday—Third Annual Easter Sunrise service at the park at 6 a.m. Rev. Ed. Murphy of the Avalon Village Community Church will be principal speaker.

All events are sponsored by the Los Angeles County Dept. of Parks and Recreation.

Junior Chamber Speak Off Won By Bob Owens

Bob Owens, representing the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, was named the winner of the District 12 public speaking competition held last week at Wilmington.

Seven local junior chambers participated in the event, which is sponsored by the California Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"Leadership in the Young Man" was the subject of the talks, which were judged by Oliver Sparrow, head of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, Ira Kay, chairman of the state committee on leadership, and Dick Fitzgerald, past president of the El Segundo Junior Chamber.

Participating in the event were the San Pedro, Torrance, Wilmington, El Segundo, Inglewood, Manhattan Beach and Redondo Beach Junior Chambers.

Owens will now represent District 12 in the finals to be held in Santa Cruz on May 8.

Also attending the speak-off last week were Marvin Goetsch, Ed Karlow and Dale Stanton.

New Store For Children Opens Here

Debbie's Children's Shop will hold a grand opening celebration this week-end, it was announced today by owner Mrs. Edith Dahlen.

The new store is located at 1134 Crenshaw Blvd., adjacent to Mari-Lyn's Dress Shop.

Mrs. Dahlen will continue to manage the dress shop in conjunction with her new children's store.

Specializing in infant's clothing and togs for the pre-school age child, the store features such lines as Health-Knit pajamas, Durene socks and stockings and Cutler Cover-ups for infants. Also featured is a complete line of educational toys.

Both Debbie's and Mari-Lyn's remain open each week day and on Saturdays until 8 p.m., Mrs. Dahlen said.

Slate April Fool's Dance

The Levis and Lace Adult Dance Club will hold an April Fool's Day party and square dance Wednesday evening, April 1, at the Lomita Recreation Building.

Esther and her Rhythm Trio will provide the music for the square dances as well as the waltzes and fox trots. Beginners are welcome to come and learn square dancing. Refreshments will be served, it was reported.

Whitson Honored By Institute

Robert H. Whitson, Torrance certified public accountant, has been elected a member of the American Institute of Accountants, national professional society of CPAs, the Institute announced today.

Mr. Whitson is an accountant with the Army Audit Agency.

PRODUCTION AWARD—John D. Spalding, works manager of National Supply Co., accepts certificate of commendation from Col. W. S. Broberg, Chief of the Los Angeles Army Ordnance District, at a presentation ceremony at the plant last Thursday. The citation of merit was based on the efficient, economical production record of the local plant. Top ranking company executives, union representatives and department heads witnessed the presentation ceremony.

Nine Finish First Aid Course Here

Eight Torrance women and one man received certificates for completion of the 12 Hour Advanced First Aid Course of the Red Cross. They were Mesdames: Bess Arsamith, Marian Austin, Marie Bischoff, Louise Burkland, Helen Comberg, Lois Krauszer, Elizabeth Richardson, Marion Welton and Mr. Edmund F. Welton, according to Mrs. Gordon Jones, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Meade-Ferguson was the first aid instructor for this course, which was held at the Red Cross office, 1754 Torrance Boulevard.

Arrangements are underway for several new Standard First Aid Courses and the Instructors First Aid Course, Mrs. Jones reported.

Lloyd Dennee Unique Fund Raising Plan Announced

The young people of the First Christian Church of Torrance this week announced a unique fund-raising drive to benefit the building program of the church.

The young members of the church have volunteered their time to take on jobs, such as baby sitting and garden and yard work, with proceeds to go into the building fund, according to Rev. Ceel J. England, pastor.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the church building, to be located at the corner of Maple ave. and Eldorado st., are set for Sunday April 12, at 11:55 a.m., Rev. England disclosed.

Persons who have a any spare time employment to offer the church's young people are urged to call Mrs. John Shellman, sponsor of the Youth Program, at Torrance 2286-M, or call the church at Torrance 2268, the pastor added.

The group left New York aboard the RMS Mauretania for St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands; the Barbados, British West Indies; Port of Spain, Trinidad; La Guaira, Venezuela; Kingston, Jamaica; Havana, Cuba; and Nassau, Bahamas.

The group will return to New York on Monday, and Dennee plans to return to this area on April 2, his associates announced.
