Girls Tour Potato Chip Factory

In anticipation of the forthcoming Potato Chip Sale to benefit the YWCA, a group of representatives of Y-Teen clubs in the Harbor District toured the Bell Brand plant. The purpose of the trip was for the girls to see first hand how potato chips are manufactured.

The girls were greeted at the plant by Charles Fuller, vice-president of the company, and Joe McElroy in charge of sales for this area, who took them through the plant explaining each operation in the production of the various products of the company.

Torrance was represented at the plant by Patti Smith, Peggy Benton, Grace Maddy, and Betty Eassa, Mesdames D. J. Quinlivan, Elsa Morris, executive director, Otis S. Blackstone, public relations director, and Rebecca Mullra, staff member from Uganda, British East Africa.

Lomita P-TA Hosts Lunch

Members of the executive board of the Lomita Elementary School P-TA were hostesses yesterday to representatives of the Lomita-San Pedro P-TA Council at a luncheon held at the Lomita School.

Lunch was served following the business meeting which began at 9:30 a.m. Decorative motif of the luncheon was "April Showers," and each table was centered by a tiny umbrella surrounded by Spring flowers.

Mrs. Harold Jack is president of the hostess P-TA unit.

Mrs. Powell Heads P-TA

Mrs. Lloyd Powell will serve next year as president of the Lomita Elementary School P-TA, to succeed Mrs. Harold Jacks, it was announced this week following election of new officers.

Other officers elected include Mesdames Frank Mickunas, first vice-president; Gladys Wright, second vice-president; Norman Manes, third vice-president; George Erickson, secretary; Gyrover Talley, treasurer; Phillip Hand, financial secretary; Al Strange, auditor, and Rollin Northorn, historian.

The new cabinet will be formally installed at the June general membership meeting, it was revealed.

VFW Auxiliary to Install Officers in Mass Ceremony

Mrs. Annie Jeffers was named to succeed Mrs. Elizabeth Allen as president of the VFW Auxiliary here following elections held last week.

The local auxiliary will join 26 other auxiliaries of the Fourth District in a mass installation ceremony set for April 10, in Long Beach. The ceremony will follow a banquet to be held in the La-Fayette Hotel, it was announced.

Other officers named to Mrs. Jeffers' cabinet include Mesdames Augusta Hunt, senior vice president; Carol Ramsey, junior vice president; Mary Towler, conductress; Beatrice Vaca, chaplain; Mabel Moore, Ann Warburton, and Velma Kent, trustees; Hilma Mallin, guard; and Elizabeth Allen, patriotic instructor.

That tiny back was a twisted; that little hand couldn't grasp anything; that pretty head was all awry. WAS . . . that is. But thanks to contributions made through our Community Chest, hundreds of children each year are re-formed and made straight and sound in Children's Hospital and Orthopaedica Hospital. Worth while, isn't it?

Police Officer to Lead P-TA Debate

Mrs. Lee M. Polick, parent-education chairman of Torrance Elementary P-TA, has announced that a member of the local police department will lead the discussion following the showing of a film, "A Criminal is Born," this evening at the school.

Slated to begin at 7:30 p.m., the general public is invited to attend this first in a series of three films to be shown during April at the school auditorium, 2004 Martina St., Mrs. Polick disclosed.

Dana Capps Has 3rd Birthday Party

Helping Dana Capps of 1319 1/2 West 219th st., celebrate her third birthday recently were her playmates, Lydia Johnson, Gayle Denny, Winkie and Linda Carpenter, Jackie Hardings, Judy Garrett, Laura Wenstrom and Sonny Sanford.

Also present for the festivities were her sister, Diana, whose second birthday was celebrated several days later, and two little cousins from out of town, Connie and Colleen Cleghorn.

Dana's mother acted as hostess and served the children a large cake decorated with pink roses and graced with three tiny candles. There were baskets of candy and favors for the youngsters.
