

New Sewing Machines On Market

Two new sewing machines are appearing at the M & S Sewing Machine Co., 1415 Marcelina ave., it was announced.

The new Elina portable is said to be the most advanced portable machine on the market, capable of an intricate number of operations requiring hardly any adjustments because of a "magic disc." The Neochi, which is a cabinet machine, will embroider, monogram, applique, sew on buttons and make buttonholes, and carry on a number of other operations with no more than a finger-tip flick of a lever, it was announced.

A complete sewing encyclopedia will be given away free May 14, 15, 16 simply for coming into the store and watching a demonstration of the machines, it was declared.

Eddie Miller, and his partner, Mrs. Lillian Sanderson, stated that the store is open till 9 p.m. on Friday nights, in addition to its regular hours.

Fund Report On Neon Sign

At Monday night's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Dale Isenberg reported that $1,000 had been received so far for the construction of the neon sign at Torrance Blvd. and Western ave. Another $500 is needed before the sign will be bought, Isenberg revealed.

So far money has been received from the Moose Club, Lions, and Rotary, and pledges of assistance have been received from the Optimist Club, Kiwanis Club, Veterans of Foreign Wars American Legion, and Disabled Veterans, it was reported.

Purpose of the sign is to direct traffic to the Torrance business area.

Principal imports at Los Angeles Harbor are: Bananas, 75,000 tons; syrups and molasses, 70,000 tons; copra, 67,000 tons; newspaper, 62,000 tons; and rubber and allied items, 56,000 tons.

Cheapest television sets in Italy cost about 20 pounds.
