So much is written today about the matter of hormones and their relationship to our physical and mental condition, that I checked with my encyclopedia as to just what these mysterious substances are. I discovered that they are internal secretions which are elaborated and secreted by specific organs into the blood stream. Through their influence on some organ or a constituent within the bloodstream or upon a nerve center, a better coordination is achieved between different parts of the body.

Bio-Chemistry

Such glands as the pancreas, thyroids, parathyroids, ovaries, pituitaries, etc., are involved with the elaboration of hormones. Their physiological actions are just as remarkable as those of the enzymes, the juices used in helping us digest our foods. Bio-chemistry has spent considerable time in research upon these remarkable secretions.

Hormonal deficiencies have brought an entire new line of thinking into the pharmaceutical and cosmetology fields.

After thirty, these hormonal denations in women take their toll in the shape of lack of color, skin dryness, loss of suppleness of skin, etc. With the deterioration of skin tone and appearance comes the worry period and anxiety over the loss of youthful radiance. Many are the women who search their mirrors for this indication of biochemical change in their bodies, secretly wondering what can be done about retaining that glow of youth upon their features. Something can be done.

Over Thirty

On the market today there are numerous hormone preparations to assist you in furnishing necessary care for the lady over thirty.

A well-known scientific treatment concern is introducing a Hormone Lotion as a companion to its famous Beauty Plus Hormone Cream. The lotion, as the cream, contains 10,000 units of natural estrogenic hormones per fluid ounce.

This preparation is especially

Wright Chairman Of Red Cross Drive

Roger Wright, Torrance, El Camino college student chairman of the Red Cross Fund Drive, said today a total of $246.94 was turned over to the Red Cross following this year's collection activities on campus.

A drive among students netted $104.94 and faculty and employee donations totaled $142, Wright said.

Faculty sponsor of the Red Cross campus chapter is Ruth Mazak, physical education instructor.

C. Kelley's Pigeon Wins

C. F. Kelley is the owner of the winning pigeon which flew the 409 miles from Marysville to Torrance in seven hours and 17 minutes, it was announced.

The bird, which flew at 56 mph, was released Saturday, May 8, at 7:22 a.m. in Marysville and arrived in Torrance at 2:39 p.m. A northwest tail wind assisted the bird's speed.

One hundred birds owned by members of the Harbor area club were in the race. Second place was won by Charles Schlenker's red male while third place was won by Schlenker's dark-checked female.

Pete More of San Pedro came in fourth with his blue checked hen, it was announced. The winning pigeon flew 1,647.04 yards per minute over a distance of 409.6 miles.

High Honor Awarded to Local Scout

Bobby Adams, member of scout troop 240 sponsored by the Walteria businessmen's club, was awarded the Order of the Arrow at the South Bay district camporee held recently at Crystal Lake, according to Robert Wagner, scout master.

The Order of the Arrow is the highest honor to be bestowed upon a scout. Receiving it signifies that the individual is a first rate scout as regards character and participation in scout activities. The scout master must nominate the individual who is voted upon by the group, it was reported.

Eighteen boys of the scout troop also attended the recent Clyde Beatty Circus as guests of Tom Jones, one of the members of the Walteria Businessmen's association, it was stated.
