

Former Assistant Editor, Pat Roden, Takes Vows

Miss Mary Patricia Roden, former assistant editor of the Torrance Press, was married Friday, May 29, to William McDonald in a brief ceremony held at 11:30 a.m. at the First Lutheran Church, 1610 Acacia, Reverend Paul Wensake officiating.

The couple left Sunday for Biloxi, Mississippi, where the groom has been sent to attend an airforce school. They are taking their honeymoon en route, stopping over at Las Vegas and New Orleans.

Miss Roden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Roden, 150 S. Virgil, Los Angeles, was with the Torrance Press over a year and is on leave of absence.

The groom, a native of Lomita, is a graduate of Narbonne high school and U.S.C. He is employed as a physicist at Lockheed aircraft and will return to Los Angeles in ten months at the completion of the present airforce course. He intends to continue working towards a Ph.D. at U.S.C.

YWCA Re-elects Past President, C. R. Halfpenny

Mrs. C. R. Halfpenny, who has served as president of the Harbor District YWCA board for the past two years, was unanimously re-elected at the May meeting of that group. Elected to serve on the executive committee with her are Mrs. Arnold Ecklund, 1st vice president; Mrs. Alfred Jorgensen, second vice president; Mrs. Harold Larmer, third vice president; Mrs. Edith Carragher, secretary; and Edna Whitlow, treasurer. Mrs. Muriel Blackstone, press chairman, announced.

Mrs. Mitchell Reskusich, of the membership committee, was elected to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. E. H. Johnson, teen-age chairman who resigned due to an injury.

Plans will be made for board and committee training during June by Mrs. Ecklund and Mrs. Alonzo Hurley, Mrs. Blackstone disclosed.

In reporting on camp, Marilyn Esslinger, teen age director, stated that camperships are available to teen-age girls in the Harbor District whether or not they are members of the Y. She stated that applications are being accepted and every effort will be made to see that girls who will profit most by this experience are chosen.

A list of camp needs ranging from a meat slicer, and photographic equipment to piano tuning was given board members in the hope that many of these supplies and services could be provided without spending camp funds, it was reported.

The chairman of the personnel committee Mrs. Hurley, stated that Mrs. Elsa J. Morris and Mrs. Charlotte Lukes of the professional staff have signed contracts to return next year.

Mrs. E. C. Spirex, chairman of the program planning committee, stated that copies of the plans for next year which were provided each member, should be carefully studied as they would be voted on at the next meeting.

The annual meeting and the membership drive were reported by Mrs. Ecklund who stated that the enrollment will continue to June 15. Mrs. Schuyler Hoffman, chairman of the public affairs committee, reported on a district public affairs meeting held in Glendale while Mrs. Alfred Jorgensen, chairman of the Nationalities Committee, invited all to attend the New Citizens' Tea. Final results of the Potato Chip sale were revealed by Mrs. Otis S. Blackstone, public relations director.

Memorial Service Held by Members Of Lodge No. 240

Memorial Services were held at Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240 Wednesday evening in memory of the past year's deceased members. The service, a Rebekah Memorial Tableau, was beautiful and solemn. A cross and bible were placed on the altar and flowers were laid with them as the deceased members' names were called. The memorial songs sung were "In the Garden" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," according to Mrs. R. Jacobs, publicity chairman.

D.M. Hoy Given Away In Marriage

Della Mae Hoy, 20, was married recently to Hal E. Eichorn, Jr., 23, at the First Baptist Church, Reverend Northrup officiating.

Over 200 guests attended the wedding and reception which followed in the social hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoy, 1635 W. 218th st. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eichorn, Sr. of Los Angeles.

Following their honeymoon the couple will settle in Los Angeles. The bride is a '51 graduate of Narbonne high school and was employed at the May company in downtown Los Angeles.

The bride wore a slipper satin gown, with lace over the satin bodice and long pointed sleeves. The bodice was of an imported chantilly-type lace over the satin. The skirt fell to a full-flowing train.

Bridesmaids were Jackie and Gayle Hoy, sisters of the bride, wearing pink taffeta dresses. Two other bridesmaids, Louise Cox and June Messerve, wore gowns of yellow taffeta.

Maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Mary-Ann Wilkins.

Jay Chenoweth was the best man and the ushers were: Kenneth Geyer, Bob Chenoweth, Joe Gerome, Pete Bratcia.

Luncheon

Mrs. Lloyd Powell and Mrs. Harold Jackson, of the Lomita elementary P-TA, will attend the district luncheon at the Hollywood Palladium, June 8, it was reported.

Western Church to Begin Construction on New Unit

The First Baptist Church of El Nido, 4558 W. 182nd st., which recently introduced western-style services, will conduct a ground breaking service Sunday afternoon, June 7, at 3 p.m., according to their pastor, Reverend Leland L. Pisel.

Dr. George Dowling of the Southern California Baptist Convention will be the guest speaker together with other dignitaries. The church's western choir, the Christian Pioneers, will be there to sing and to play. The public is invited to attend.

The new building will be a two story educational unit valued at approximately $40,000. This building plus the present facilities will accommodate a church school of at least 500, it was stated.

The new addition will be an auditorium which will seat around 300. The auditorium can be used as a social and recreation hall.
