

Eager Brownies Entertain Daddies

Brownies of Troop 576 honored their Dads at a pot-luck dinner held Saturday at Torrance Park, according to Mrs. Ione Aarup, publicity chairman.

There were 35 hungry mouths all in all. Girls of the Troop, which is sponsored by Torrance elementary school, served their fathers and set the table. All played games afterwards.

Mrs. E. Curtis is the Troop scoutmaster.

June Black Presented With Trophy

Winners in an original hair-styling contest among El Camino college cosmetology students were announced this week by cosmetology instructors Beulah Grace and Marguerite Robinson.

Trophies were presented to first place winner Beulah Utter, Hawthorne, in the senior division who designed a personality cut; and to first place winner June Black, Torrance, in the junior division who used on adapted crown cut. Certificates and trophies were presented by Director of Instruction William H. Harless.

Judging the contest were professional beauty shop operators Sally Bonner, Redondo Beach, Celia Valenzuela, Redondo Beach and Maggie Stinebaugh, Inglewood.

Last Briefing of Delegates Prior To Conference

Harbor District Y-Teens met at the YWCA headquarters building in San Pedro for a final briefing before attending the Asilomar Leadership Training Conference June 22 to 29.

This was the second meeting of this group which was designed to prepare the girls for the conference.

The girls who participated were: Marlene Chason and Pat Johnson of the Lynx; Barbara McGaffey, Coeds; Kathleen Vitalich and Judy Newburg, Coquettes; Peggy Wood, Freshmen; Peggy Wood, Debutantes; Robin Cockerill, Torrettes, and Deloris Knutilla, Betas.

The group will leave by chartered bus on June 22 and return here June 29. Marilyn Esslinger, teen-age director, will leave a few days earlier to assist in preparations. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Rebecca Mulira, delegate from Ujanga, who will participate in the conference before returning to her home in July.

Mrs. M. T. Allen Turns Poet for P-TA Installation

"The ABC of P-TA" was the theme chosen by Mrs. M. T. Allen for the installation of the new officers the final meeting of the year of the Channel Heights P-TA. The original poems admonishing each new officer as to the duties and responsibilities of the office, spelled out the name of the school. Mrs. Allen is the new president of Gateway Council and has served as president of San Pedro High School P-TA, Mrs. Gordon Paris, press chairman, announced.

Installed with Mrs. Florence Blum as president were Mmes. George Valbuena, first vice-president; Winifred Collins, second vice-president; Howard Hilbert, secretary; Walter Orenstein, treasurer; Gordon Paris, historian; Betty Starkovich, auditor.

Mrs. Blum has been very active in school civic and church work. Besides being clerk and Superintendent of Beginners Sunday School at the Channel Heights Community church, she teaches religious release-time classes both at Channel Heights and the Crenshaw Baptist church in Torrance.

The fifth grade pupils presented a quiz program, "Take It or Leave It," sponsored by a fictional Krunchy Wunchy Breakfast Food. With the class divided into two teams, each "contestant" was given one true-or-false question worth four points, with the choice of taking the four points or trying for eight points.

Confidence in their knowledge of East American History was indicated by the fact that each team had only two contestants unwilling to "try for eight." The Red team defeated the Blue team by a score of 80 to 72.

Background music for the A-6 graduation program was provided by the Channel Heights Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Lena Katterjohn. Michael Rincon announced the humorous and patriotic poems and songs recited by the class, who concluded their program with a farewell song.

"Skip to My Lou," "Sandy Land," "Tramping," "Down in the Valley" and "Whistle, Daughter, Whistle," were the folk songs played by the in-service autoharp training class composed of primary teachers from schools in the Harbor area, instructed by Mrs. Lena Katterjohn.

Individual strawberry tarts, tea and coffee were served by the teachers during the social hour following adjournment of the meeting.

Accordionists Hold Concert Monday Nite

The Torrance Accordionettes will present their annual summer show, "Vacation Varieties of '53" at 8 p.m. on Monday, June 15, in the high school auditorium.

MYRON FLOREN . . . accordionist

Myron Floren, popular accordionist featured with Lawrence Welk Band will be the guest artist.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Accordionettes; or from the Bettie Thomas Studio, 1215 Crenshaw Blvd. Tickets will also be available at the high school the evening of the program.

Communion and Breakfast Held By Church Group

St. Elizabeth's Guild played hostess to approximately 90 women and daughters of St. Andrew's Episcopal church at a breakfast held in the Parish Hall Sunday, May 7, following a Corporate Communion and installation service for the newly elected officers of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Breakfast
Garlands of ivy and spring flowers were the decorative motif accompanying a delicious breakfast of bacon and eggs, sweet rolls, orange juice and coffee. Mrs. Frank Church, president of St. Elizabeth's, was ably assisted by the Mmes. Betty Ward, Kathryn Wash, Susie Eade, Jessica Jelf, Ruth Wilson, Ethel Daley and the Newman family.

Table of Honor
Seated at the table of honor were the newly elected officers: Mrs. Alan Moore, president; Mrs. Sam Neely, vice-president; Mrs. Margery Norman, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Charles Stewart, treasurer. Others were Mrs. H. C. Nelson, president of St. Cecilia's Guild; Mrs. A. L. Turner, president of St. Margaret's Guild; Mrs. Mel Hines, president of St. Ann's Guild, and the Rev. Mr. Arthur Bello, rector of St. Andrew's church.

The Woman's Auxiliary, which is nationwide, is a new organization in the parish and will coordinate and support the five guilds already actively engaged in church work.

Expecting? Center Will Show Films

Ladies in waiting will have the opportunity of seeing the film "Labor and Childbirth" at the Expectant Mothers' Class in the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson Street, Thursday, June 18 at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Leona Brown Rowe, public health nurse-instructor, has booked the film which reviews hospital needs and registration, preparation for baby's birth, and its entrance into the world. A second film, "Prenatal Care" has also been scheduled.

Prospective parents are invited to this or any other of these classes held Thursday afternoons under the sponsorship of the County Health Department.

You see a man who is hasty in his words. There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Typical Hawaiian 'Luau' Marks P-TA Luncheon

Mrs. Ray Groover, president of Harbor City P-TA, entertained the members of her board with a "Luau" Friday noon, June 5. It was a typical island feast, with the food set out all at once on a "tablecloth" of leaves spread on the floor.

The decorations were a typical Hawaiian scene with hula girls, palm trees and a grass shack. Each guest removed her shoes and sat upon the floor to enjoy the wonderful luncheon served by the hostess. Recorded Hawaiian music was in the background to add to the environment. Mrs. J. Triffon, publicity chairman, revealed.

Barefooted and painted red toe nails was one of the requests by the hostess to the guests, who were: Mmes. Carl Gregory, Carl Sierra, I. D. Bourland, O. C. Grubs, Marvin Scott, Leland Van Buren, Troy Collum, Glenn Deatherage, Dean McIntire, James Alexander, Richard Seden, John McGuire, Warren Hoyt, J. E. Groover, Lester Laule, D. G. Cheek, William Tregarthen, James Triffon and Mr. Winston Scott, principal.
