PROMOTIONS GRANTED TWO NAVY MEN

Ever since they ran into each other in boot camp and became friends way back in 1946, the paths of Lt. (junior-grade) John Gilliard Alvis and Lt. (junior-grade) Robert Gold have run parallel even as far as their recent graduation within two days of each other and the subsequent promotions from two different schools was concerned.

Naval Aviator
Lt. (j-g) John Alvis, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Alvis of 2509 Via Ramon, Palos Verdes, upon completion of advanced training in attack type aircraft, was designated a Naval Aviator at a ceremony conducted at the US Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi recently.

His aviator's diploma was presented by Rear Admiral Cato D. Glover, USN, Chief of Naval Air Advanced Training. His Navy Wings were presented by his mother. Also present at the ceremony were his father, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Fields, and Mrs. Stewart Zinc.

Submarine School
Lt. (j-g) Robert Gold, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gold of Gardena, completed submarine school in New London, Connecticut this month, receiving his lieutenantcy upon completion of the course.

Both navy men are graduates of Annapolis, class of 1951. Both entered the navy in 1946. They were together in their naval careers till two years ago when they graduated from the academy. However they have gone to similar fields of duty and have managed to have coinciding leaves. They even received additional training and a promotion at the same time.

When the present leave is up, they will head for the Far East for a second tour of duty.

Dodging obligations doesn't provide practical answers to your problems. Most of the time you'll find the detour rougher than the highway of plain duty.
