Something New—
Ice Cubes Given
Away at Store

You can get as many ice-cubes as you want free of charge if you stop in at Liberty Home Appliance company, 1623 Cravens ave. according to Jim Lawson and Milt Isbell, owners of the store. The offer is being made because the company has just been appointed as a new dealer in Torrance of the Servel refrigerator

Few Camp

Twenty places remain in the Torrance YMCA camping period at Round Meadow in the San Bernardino mountains.

A. C. Turner, chairman of the YMCA Board of Managers, announced that the camp was filling very rapidly for the July 14 to 21 period and urged all boys and their parents who have not signed applications to get them into the "Y" office right away. Cabin leaders will be meeting very soon for the first of their training sessions. Announcement on this will be made by Stan Roberts, camp director and Torrance YMCA Branch executive secretary.

which features an amazing automatic ice-maker which starts, refills, and stops by itself. The cubes are loose. There are no trays to fill or empty. The ice cubes, which are full-size, won't stick together. Servel refrigerators come in the gas or electric models.
