'Mr. Texas' Will Show at Church

"Mr. Texas," called "the world's finest Christian western," will be shown here Sunday, July 5, in the First Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m., according to an announcement today by Rev. Miles Northrup, in charge of the local presentation. The film is the first major production of Billy Graham Evangelistic Films, Inc., and features the famed young evangelist and his entire evangelistic team. Playing leading roles in the full length-color picture are Red Harper and Cindy Walker, both professional western stars who have recently made their decision to give their lives and talents to Christian service.

Produced as an experiment, "Mr. Texas" has amazed religious leaders and motion picture authorities alike during its first year of showings.

M. Anderson Ties Knot With C. Wilde

Merlyn X. Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Wright, 1023 Arlington, became the bride of Cecil B. Wilde of Torrance in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, June 28 in the First Methodist Church with Reverend John L. Taylor officiating.

With Pat Clere at the organ, Lloyd Jones sang "Calm as the Night" and "The Lord's Prayer." The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of mauve chantilly lace and nylon net over taffeta. A Juliet cap held a shoulder length veil in place. She carried a white Bible and a bouquet of pinocchio roses, orchid heather centered with an orchid surrounded by shell pink shattered carnations.

Attending the bride were her Sorority sisters, Miss Cathryn M. Chisholm, maid of honor; Mesdames Ruth Wilson, Lucille Nelson and Estella Hall, bridesmaids. They were gowned in pastel shades of aqua, turquoise, pink and dusty rose taffeta with overskirts of net. Chantilly lace boleros styled after the bride's gown completed their costumes. Jane Strohm, the flower girl was dressed in Alice blue ruffled taffeta. Frank E. Willson served as best man and the ushers were Ray Nelson, G. Lee Ison and Earl P. Miller. Hostesses for the reception were Mary Palmer, Florene Devlin, Evelyn Rupelli, Lois Gongwer, Kay Kenta, Betty Miller and Fern Ison.

The bride is a graduate of the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music and Long Beach State College where she is a charter member of the Omega Alpha Delta Honorary Sorority. Mrs. Wilde is a teacher of Instrumental Music in the Torrance schools. Her husband, a graduate of the Colorado school of Mines, is the Laboratory Manager of the Stauffer Chemical Co. at Los Angeles.

Uncle Leads To 'Cousins'

Miss Barbara Bason's problem did not end when she convinced a regular patron at George's restaurant last week that he was her uncle.

The case of Uncle Sam Kleinkauf and Niece Barbara Bason has been solved uncontroversially and to mutual satisfaction. However, another problem has arisen. Since Barbara's story appeared in the Torrance Press last week, countless "relatives" have turned up. Strangely enough, all the "relatives" seem to be "cousins."

It seems though that Barbara's numerous "cousins" are having a somewhat hard time establishing their relationship.
