Horse Bolts, Throws Man

Jack Baldwin, staff member of a local newspaper, required hospitalization following a fall from a horse which occurred Saturday morning, July 4. Baldwin was said to be in "good condition."

Baldwin, who lives at 23114 Fajens Ave., was thrown off his horse when the animal bolted and ran into a stone and concrete block wall. An ambulance rushed to the scene in the rear of Virgil's Wheel Alignment, 1750 Carson St., and took the injured man to the Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Today's Biggest Bargain!

Electricity is one of the few things you buy or use today which still sells at pre-inflation prices, and Edison rates are among the lowest in the nation.

Considering everything electricity does for you—at home, at work and at play—the small amount you pay for it buys a world of convenience, comfort and work-saving economy. And with your electric rates even lower today than in 1939, electricity really is today's biggest bargain!
