J. B. Beardwood Returns from Washington, D. C.

Jack B. Beardwood closed his desk in Washington with plans to return to his home in Portuguese Bend. For the past six months Beardwood has served as assistant to Secretary Hobby of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

On accepting his resignation, Secretary Hobby said: "When Mr. Beardwood agreed to give me his assistance, he declared it could be for but six months because of personal and financial reasons. He has served the administration and me unflinchingly and well. I have accepted his resignation with regret."

THINGS TO COME — Laminated baseball bats, now available for amateur use await big league sanction.

If it is more convenient you may contact the office of the Department of Recreation and Playgrounds, 1347 El Prado, telephone Fairfax 8-4180.

Trip to Hawaii For Housewife, Mayfair Milkman

Soft guitars... songs of the islands... swaying palms... all this and more awaits a Mayfair Creamery customer and her Mayfair milkman. Both turned up winners in recent contest by Sunkist Orange Juice.

A seven day expense paid trip to Honolulu, the grand prize, was won by Mrs. Bernice McMahon of Manhattan Beach. Because he was her Mayfair milkman, Harley Eye also receives a free trip to Hawaii according to John Melville, general manager for Mayfair Creamery, distributors of Sunkist Orange Juice in this area.

Mrs. McMahon in winning over thousands of entrants in the "Why I Like Sunkist Homogenized Orange Juice" contest was all smiles as she prepared for her stay at Niumalu Hotel. Eye's comment was "I didn't think I'd get to Honolulu delivering Mayfair milk! It shows there's opportunity everywhere."
