

JUNIOR MISS WEARABLES

This year, fashion favors the young miss with gay jersey blouses... tweed skirts... princess coats... and pendulum coats and classic officer's coats—all borrowed from "group-up" collections.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

The highest price ever paid for a single postage stamp was reputed to have been more than $45,000. It was a 1-cent British Guiana issue from the Arthur Hind collection sold at auction during 1933-34.

Carson C of C Holds Meeting

The Carson-area Chamber of Commerce held its first meeting of the fall season. The meeting was held at the Lone Pine Inn with the newly installed president, Lloyd Desmond, bringing the meeting to order.

A variety of interesting topics was discussed including the desirability and need of a bank in the extended area.

There were a couple of inquiries from banks with respect to this possibility.

A short talk was given by Mr. Griffith, principal of the Banning Homes Elementary School. He expressed the need for extended facilities in this area.

Is It Harmful?

Is giving blood harmful or dangerous? Giving blood is safe, simple, and painless with every precaution taken for the protection of the donor. Before his donation, the donor is medically screened by a physician. Professional registered nurses with special training take the blood, using the most accepted techniques.

'All America Cities Award' Torrance's?

Torrance hopes to receive the "All America Cities Award" this year. Robert I. Plomert, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, will enter Torrance in the annual contest sponsored each year by the National Municipal League.

Those cities eligible for the finals will send spokesmen to address the contest jury at the League's National Conference on Government held at Richmond, Virginia, November 8-11.

The award-winning cities will be featured in Look magazine and the National Municipal Review, as well as receive radio, newspaper, and TV publicity.

The jury will be headed by Dr. George Gallup.

Giving Blood

Who can give blood? Anyone between the ages of 18 and 59, at least 110 pounds in weight, and in normally good health. Minors must receive the signed consent of parent or legal guardian.

B'nai B'rith Elects Heads

At the Gardena Valley Jewish Center Sisterhood meeting held at the Gardena Community Center recently, new officers were elected as follows for the ensuing term: president, Gene Rothman; vice president, Marion Ross; recording secretary, Alyce Simon; corresponding secretary, Estelle Farkash; treasurer, Mildred Halkin.

The new board is already making plans for fund raising for the year, proceeds to go towards the building fund.

The committee has announced that classes for Sunday school and Hebrew school are being formed. Registration for classes will be held at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market st. on Sunday, Oct. 4 between 10 and 11 a.m.

Parents are asked to accompany the child as the director has something of importance to impart to them. For further information regarding these classes, please contact Mrs. Henry Fein, MEnlo 4-3539 or Mrs. Jules Ross, OS. 6-8458.

Lomita School Gets New Name

Orange St. School in Lomita will be called 259th Pl. School from now on.

On motion of School Superintendent Alexander J. Stoddard, the Los Angeles Board of Education approved the name change.

Stoddard said the name change was effected because the name of the street on which the school fronts was changed several years ago.

The name change goes into effect immediately, according to a spokesman for the Board of Education.

Santa Barbara Vacationers

Vacationing in beautiful Santa Barbara, during the week of that city's recent lovely Spanish fiesta were Mr. and Mrs. John King of Carson st., their daughters, Laura and Lorna Beth, accompanied by Mrs. Beth Paige, mother of Mrs. King. The latter half of their time was spent in lovely Laguna Beach where they often go unable to resist the charm which that resort presents.

School for Exceptional Kids Starting

The Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation and Toberman Settlement, 131 N. Grand, San Pedro, are sponsoring a cooperative training school for mentally retarded children, which will be partially financed by the parents of the attending pupils. The school will open Sept. 21, 9 a.m. The purpose and aim will be to gain the finances. For further information in the home and school, endeavoring to develop the individual child to his fullest possibilities.

Those who have not already registered may do so on Sept. 21, 9 a.m. to 12 noon, at Toberman Settlement. A volunteer staff will be available for clearing information regarding transportation and children toward social adjustment in the home and school.

From the Port Angeles, Washington News: BLOODHOUND for Sale—What am I offered for one-year-old? Beautiful animal, gentle, good watchdog. Will eat anything and especially fond of children.
