P-T-A to Discuss What Makes Kids Tick Tuesday

"What Makes a School Age Child Tick?" is the topic for a parent education class scheduled for 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 29 at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market St. in Gardena.

The class, second in a current series, is being offered by the Washington Adult School and co-sponsored by the Gardena-Wilmington Council for local parent-teacher associations.

Designed to help parents, educators, and all those whose concern, interest, guidance, and work is with children, the course is being taught by Mrs. Helen Miller, parent education leader and manager, Tenth District Parent-Teacher Study Bureau.

The course entitled, "Enjoying Your School Age Child" will also include the following topics for class study and discussion.

Oct. 6, "Steps to Emotional Maturity"; Oct. 13, "Discipline Today"; Oct. 20, "Brothers and Sisters"; Oct. 27, "Good and Bad Habits"; Nov. 3, "Getting Along With Others"; Nov. 10, "Interpreting Family Life Events"; Nov. 17, "How to Help Your Child in School"; and Nov. 24, "Influential Company", comics, radio, television, movies, books and records.

Church Post Filled by Rev. Walker

The Rev. J. H. Walker has assumed the post of minister at the First Christian Church of Torrance temporarily until a new minister can be chosen to replace the Rev. C. J. England, who resigned recently.

The Rev. Walker brings to the ad-interim field a rich background of experience. He has been in the ministry over 40 years of which more than 35 were spent in the Southland of which he is a native son.

His first pastorate of 11 years was at Greenville, N. Carolina, where he was instrumental in building the 8th St. Christian Church, one of the outstanding churches of the State.

While serving in Memphis, Tennessee he led a new congregation in the erection of a $180,000 church.

The Rev. Walker recently entered the ad-interim field. He is also a 32 degree Mason.

At the time he left Memphis, he was president of the Council of Churches of Memphis.

Church to Show Film on India

The colored motion picture "India's Sorrow" will be shown free to the public at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 24 at the First Fundamental Baptist Church of Waleria, Park at Newton Streets, of which the Rev. Andrew Duty is the pastor.

This film, taken by Dr. Louis T. Talbot of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles while he was visiting mission fields around the world, shows multitudes of the legions of India washing in the Sacred Ganges. In contrast to the burning

Discovery

The existence of typhoid carriers was first discovered in 1907 by German scientists who established the fact that typhoid germs were discharged in the excreta of many persons long after recovery from the disease. Later research disclosed carriers whose illness dated back for as long a period as 45 years.

Methodists To Celebrate Rally Day

On Sunday, Sept. 27, the Waleria Community Methodist Church will celebrate Rally Day. This day is also set aside as a Promotion Sunday for all Sunday School classes. The second anniversary of the founding of the church falls in this week of September.

Until the new sanctuary is completed, which is now under construction on Newton St., Sunday School and Church worship services are being conducted in the Recreation Hall in Waleria Park. Sunday school begins at 9:45 and the regular morning worship hour at 11. Members and friends of Waleria Community Methodist are anticipating the move into the new church building sometime in October.
