PUBLICITY-SHY... this night-blooming cereus is a very ephemeral creature. Snap, crackle, pop—and it opens up, only to bloom until the sun or heat causes the blossoms to die. This particular cactus, owned by Mr. and Mrs. V. Anderson of 2319 Maricopa, had never boasted five blossoms before.

Bible Store Serves All Religions

A general religious supply house catering to all denominations and intended for both church and home needs opened as the Bible, Book, and Gift Shop at 1619 Cravens Ave.

The store, which was formerly the San Pedro Bible House in San Pedro for three-and-a-half years, is owned and operated by Paul H. Perry and his daughter, Miss Gwen Perry, who have lived in Torrance 13 years.

The store, which serves half the South Bay churches of various denominations, carries Sunday school literature, communion wear, church bulletins, church furniture, all church supplies, a complete line of religious and non-religious greeting cards, a complete line of Bibles or testaments, and all kinds of pictures, plaques, and gift items. The store is open from 9 to 5:30 except on Fridays when it is open till 9 p.m. It may stay open till the same time on Saturdays as well.

THIEF ROBS DRUG STORE

About $350 in cash and checks was stolen from the Walteria Drug store, 101 Highway at Neece, early Sunday morning.

Admission was gained by breaking a hole through a partition separating a doctor's office and the drug store.

The alarm went off but the thief stayed long enough to break open the safe and seize the money, according to Detective Sergeant Percy Bennett.

Walteria P-TA Meets Today

The Walteria P-TA executive board will meet today at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. E. B. Pfau, 24809 Winlock drive.

The board was recently hostess at a luncheon held for the school teachers and staff. The luncheon was held in the school auditorium and was a chance for the teachers and board to become acquainted.

Rev. P. Wenske Represents State At Conference

Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, left by plane last week for Columbus, Ohio. Rev. Wenske is chairman of the stewardship committee of the California District of the American Lutheran Church. He will represent the California District at a stewardship conference to be held at Columbus, Ohio.

Representatives from all the districts of the American Lutheran Church in the United States and Canada will attend the conference in Columbus. On his trip back to California, Rev. Wenske stops in Nebraska to visit his father who suffered a stroke a week and a half ago.

Rev. Wenske plans to be gone a week or ten days. During his absence the pastoral work of the First Lutheran Church will be in charge of Rev. Ralph Herman, the assistant pastor.

Powers, P-TA president welcomed the new mothers. Mrs. P. Jacobely was assisted with the serving by Mmes. R. P. Boderman, M. H. Kelley, H. O. Wasmund, C. E. Aspittle and C. L. Wilson.

Man Dies Of Plunge Into Pool

A night watchman died this week when he fell head first into an empty swimming pool 14 feet deep while guarding a construction job in Rolling Hills.

Albert L. Crowthers, 82, of Los Angeles died Monday as a result of this fatal fall. He was a native of Cochocton, Ohio.

Services will be held today at noon at the Chapel of the Chimes, Inglewood Cemetery. Graveside services will be conducted by the Elks Lodge and Reverend Huebner. The deceased was a member of the Elks. Members of the Elks Lodge will serve as pallbearers.

Crowthers is survived by his wife, Elda Crowthers of 5903 S. La Brea; daughter, Doris Ethel Kerber of North Hollywood; son, Dr. Hearn Crowthers of Oakland; two granddaughters, Nancy Kerber Barker of Los Angeles and Ann Barker of New York; one brother, Alonzo Crowthers of Arcadia, California.

Cops, School Praised for Improvements

Conditions around the Torrance High School area have greatly improved, thanks to the excellent cooperation between the Torrance Police Department and the school district in supervising the area, stated Maurice Foreman of 1724 Watson St., a resident near the school.

Students are not milling around outside the school as they used to do, Foreman stated. Foreman said local residents are very pleased at the fine work done by the police and the school in this matter.

San Pedro Art Association officials today announced the opening date of the 23rd Annual Fall Art Exhibition of oils, watercolors, pastels and drawings. The year's largest art show will commence Sunday, October 18, at the Association's gallery, 820 South Beacon Street, and will continue through Sunday, November 1st.
