

Sunday School Classes Opened By Jewish Center

The Gardena-Valley Jewish Center announces the reopening of its Sunday School. Registration is Sunday, Oct. 4, at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market st., Gardena.

All parents and children, ages 5 to 14, are invited to come for a get-acquainted party at the time of registration. Come and meet the new director of the adult and children Jewish education. The center is pleased to announce that Philip Warren, a graduate of the Yishivah of Montreal, Canada, and a member of the New York State and Maryland bar, has accepted the call to direct all educational activities of the center.

Mayor to Speak At Installation

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will hold an installation banquet, honoring J. Gene Walker, newly elected president, Sunday, Oct. 4, at the YWCA. Mayor Mervin M. Schwab, who will be the guest speaker, will speak on "A Challenge to Youth."

Douglas Jeffrey Ordained at Baptist Church

On Tuesday, Sept. 22, at 4 o'clock, p.m. an Ordination Council met at the Torrance First Baptist Church to consider the proposition of ordaining Douglas Jeffrey to the gospel ministry. The Council, called by the church, consisted of 16 ministers and delegates from 11 different churches of the Harbor Association. The Harbor Association is part of the American Baptist Convention.

Following the meeting of the council, the candidate and all the delegates were honored at an informal dinner which was also held at the church.

Ordination
At 7:30 p.m., the official ordination service took place in the main auditorium with the church body and interested parties in attendance. This service was conducted with the members of the council participating. The "Charge to the Church" was given by Rev. Frank Ramsden; the "Charge to the Candidate" was given by Rev. Walt Graham. The Certificate of Ordination was presented by Rev. LeMaster. The candidate's form pastor and advisor, Dr. Catherwood of Riverside, offered a warm congratulatory message. Dr. Jauncey, professor of theology at the Covina Baptist Seminary, brought a timely and inspiring message. In closing, as a gesture of love and affection, Rev. C. M. Northrup, on behalf of the congregation, presented the new reverend a Bible. The parents of Rev. and Mrs. Jeffrey and Mr. Jeffrey's brother and wife of San Francisco, were among those present to offer congratulations and best wishes to the new minister.

Plomert Enters Good Samaritan

Robert I. Plomert, Jr., president of the Chamber of Commerce, entered the Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles today for major abdominal surgery of an exploratory nature. Plomert will be laid up for seven to eight weeks.
