

Annexation . .

stop to that by securing the passage of legislation preventing the annexation of El Camino and its 80 acres to any city.
However, Alondra Park remains to be had for the taking, and thus the big industrial area between the park and El Segundo Boulevard, bordered on the west by Prairie Avenue and on the east by Crenshaw Boulevard could become a part of Torrance.

People of the area want to annex to Torrance to get its superior schools, police and fire protection and other municipal services which excel that of the county area to which they now belong, according to Councilman Draie.

Commercial Area
Also, Draie pointed out that a vast commercial area is being planned for the district just south of Rosecrans and east of Crenshaw, also in county territory, which can be annexed without an election, provided the park and populated area just north of the park are annexed. Only the populated area would require an election, it was pointed out.

The many new factories which have gone into the area in the past year would provide the needed revenue to make the move worthwhile by increasing the assessed valuation at least by $10,000,000, it is estimated.
