Dr. Crawshaw Speaks Today

"Safety to School" is the subject Dr. Marshall Crawshaw will speak on at the first meeting of the Torrance Elementary P.T.A. Dr. Crawshaw is the principal of Adult Education in Torrance, and an educator in safety. This meeting will be held today at 1:30 p.m. The 6th grade mothers will act as hostesses, and child care will be available.

THINGS TO COME — They don't saturate — Passenger car production will reach the six-million mark this year, and next year's total will be between 5½ million and six million. Within ten years the range will be from 8 million to 9 million.

Y Sponsors Talent Show

Budding entertainers from the Torrance area YMCA are invited to enter a talent competition to be held in connection with Y-Day in Hollywood which an expected 150 local youngsters and adults will attend October 31, Executive Secretary Stan Roberts announced this week.

Entrants from more than 50 YMCAs in California will compete before the big variety show in Hollywood Bowl. Also on the program for the all-day event is the UCLA-California football game.

Winner of the talent contest will receive a valuable prize and the "Y" he represents will be awarded a television set.

Slated for the Y-Day variety show, which Art Linkletter will emcee, are stars of movies, television and radio.

Roberts said that entry blanks for the talent contest can be obtained at the YMCA.

Reservations for Y-Day in Hollywood are now available at the "Y."

HALLOWEEN

Carnival Plans Made By Park

The Avalon-Sepulveda Park Recreation Council held its monthly meeting last Thursday, October 1 at Avalon-Sepulveda park. Those present were Jack Henry, president; Frances Samek, secretary; John McGrath, Mesdames Mary DePrete, Jennie Palomob, Marge Kukendall, Lucille Hopper, Madeline South, Jewel Foster and Dorothy L. Kemper.

The main item of business was planning the Halloween carnival to be held October 31. There will be a big program for the whole community including a bonfire starting at 6:30 p.m., a costume parade with prizes given, booths, games, and dancing.

All this activity will be free. The only charge will be for coffee and cakes.

Chairmen are as follows: Jack Henry, master of ceremonies; Mrs. Frances Samek, booth prizes; Mrs. Madeline South, costume prizes.

TORRANCE CIVITAN CLUB and officers were officially recognized at an installation and charter dinner held last Friday at the Palos Verdes Country Club. Officers installed were, left to right: (front) Floyd R. DeVore, sergeant-at-arms; Nicholas O. Drale, second vice-president; Frank S. Selover, president (who is being congratulated by Kurt Keltner, California District Governor); Robert

A. Owens, first vice-president; Tom Ward, treasurer; Rev. Wayne V. Kobes, chaplain; (rear) Charles Markland, director; Captain Ernest M. Ashton, historian; Dr. Albert F. Kline, Harry Marshall, Frank Diederichs, directors; Robert Belken, secretary. The officers were installed by A. M. Moe, governor-elect of the California district.

THINGS TO COME — Spots left by dirt, tar, oil, fust and ink on painted surfaces, aluminum, chromium, brass, inoleum or stainless steel are the targets of a versatile new chemical cleaner.

Conscience is merely our own judgment of the right or wrong of our actions, and so can never be a safe guide unless enlightened by the word of God. —Tryon Edwards

There is no class of men so difficult to be managed in a state as those whose intentions are honest, but whose consciences are bewitched. —Napoleon

THINGS TO COME — Space Patrol! An air conditioned work suit for farmers is made of airtight rubberized material and has a transparent plastic helmet with room for a radio receiver.

THINGS TO COME—An especially small drill-saw-grinder-sander-buffer electric tool is advertised as especially for the home workshop whose wife is encroaching on his hobby space.

THINGS TO COME—Facts of life: A new toy automobile comes with jack and wrench to change tires.
