Juniors Plan Party For New Members

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club is planning a party honoring new members to be held October 28 at the club house. Mrs. George Stevens is chairman of the event. Each member is to make and wear a hat portraying her husband's occupation. Prizes will be awarded for the cleverest hat. At its meeting last week, the club was shown a film by the Community Chest entitled "The Long Way Home." The film's purpose was to show where contributions go and how important it is to support the Community Chest. Members also voted to assume the responsibility of addressing envelopes for the March of Dimes this year.

Spooks Will Roam At Park

Plans are rapidly being put into action at Avalon-Sepulveda Park for a giddy Halloween carnival. A big bonfire will start the festivities at 6:30 on Halloween night. There are going to be prizes.

Following the costume parade, many opportunities for testing eye and arm will be had. Knocking the witch off the wall, ringing the cat's tail, throwing balls at and into. And all for free! Everyone can win and everyone will have a choice of prizes.

The V.F.W. Auxiliary 9888 will help feed the inner man by serving coffee and cakes and candied apples at cost.

Dancing for everyone is planned—social, square and old time dancing. Miss Nancy Johnson will be caller of the square dances. Jack Henry, master of ceremonies for the night as well as president of the Recreation Council says he will try to give everyone an opportunity to enjoy himself. The Carnival, like all other activities on the Park, is sponsored by the Los Angeles County Dept. of Parks and Recreation.

EVERYONE'S HAVING FUN... While mothers belonging to the Y-Wives are enjoying their Friday morning activities, their youngsters play contentedly at the Saint Andrews Episcopal Church where facilities and supervision are provided for the children.
