INGRATITUDE IS treason to mankind.—Thomson.

Rummage Sale Slated By New Church

To assist in a fund raising campaign to benefit the new Walteria Community Methodist Church, the women of the church are holding a rummage sale. This sale will run for two days on both October 23 and 24 and will be held in a regular store building at 3729 Newton street on the corner of Hawthorne boulevard and Newton street in Walteria. Store hours will be from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. All sorts of household and personal goods will be for sale at very low prices. Young intermediate and high school girls will help sort and sell materials.

The proceeds from this sale will be used to outfit the church kitchen. Anyone wishing to help by contributing articles may call either Marie Cunningham who is in charge of promotion at Davenport 6-0154, or Melba Burgener, president of the WSCS at Frontier 5-4691. Either of these ladies will arrange to have such articles picked up. Any contribution will be greatly accepted in the name of young churches everywhere.

Bishop McGucken Guest Of Honor

Bishop Joseph T. McGucken will be guest of honor at "Volunteer Recognition Night" tonight at 8 p. m., at CYO Auditorium, 3802 Brooklyn Ave.

The occasion will be part of an area-wide observance of National Catholic Youth Week.

Some 350 volunteers have been invited. Representing the Archdiocesan Catholic Youth Organization on the program will be Rev. John J. Birch, director, and Rev. John P. Langille, his assistant.

Volunteers to be honored will come from many city and outlying CYO districts, settlement houses and community centers, including Torrance.

NATIVITY CLUB HOLDS ELECTIONS

Highlights of the recent meeting of the Nativity Mothers Club, held October 13, at the Parish hall, was the election of new officers.

Elected unanimously, the new board is as follows: Mrs. Joseph Powers, president; Mrs. A. Snow, vice-president; Mrs. Don Franklin, secretary; Mrs. William McDonald, treasurer.

Father McGuinness, on behalf of the Club, voiced appreciation to the retiring officers for their excellent work during the past year.

The Club's next project will be a Halloween costume party and hot dog lunch. Mrs. Arthur Gross volunteered to act as chairman of this affair, which will be held Thursday, October 29, on the school grounds.

Very favorable results were received from the Safety Committee in regard to its work during "Safety Week in Torrance."

Dinner
Mrs. Louise Cook agreed to act as co-chairman for the Parish Dinner, which is to be held Sunday, November 8, at the Parish hall.

Mrs. Laura Felker, Health Chairman, announced that Mrs. May Sherefy, and Mrs. Corwin Dean would be her co-chairmen for the coming year.

The following women have volunteered to act as room mothers during the coming school year: Mrs. Ruth Janasik, first grade; Mrs. Alice Machado, second grade; Mrs. G. Gordon, third grade; Mrs. H. Green, fourth grade; Mrs. M. A. Strelch, fifth grade; Mrs. Louise Islieb, sixth grade; Mrs. D. J. White, seventh grade; Mrs. Leo Harlan, eighth grade.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the eighth grade mothers.

Sister Richard, principal of Nativity school, announced that as an educational sideline the upper four grades would visit Pacific Telephone company during the open house Thursday October 22.

Sermon

J. J. Walker, pastor of the First Christian church, 1415 Engracia, will speak Sunday, October 25 on "Christians Are Commissioned"; Matthew 28 and Acts 1.
