Brown-Hornung Exchange Vows

At a wedding held October 23 at the Lomita Presbyterian Church and officiated over by Rev. Eldon Durham, Miss Betty Lee Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Brown, 1745 West 254th street, Lomita, became the bride of Richard Wayne Hornung, son of Mrs. Peter Hornung, 2077 West 248th Street, Lomita.

The bride wore a white nylon brocade gown with a fingertip veil and carried a white Bible with a stephanotis and white orchid corsage. Miss Kay Brown, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Miss Brown wore a turquoise satin and nylon dress.

Bridesmaids were: Shirley Montgomery, wearing a light blue dress, and Gerrie Lowell, wearing a coral-colored dress. Barbara Goar, wearing a yellow dress, and Martha Goar, dressed in pink, acted as candle lighters. Joe Rowell acted as best man with Paul Bluff and Laddie Hall acting as ushers.

Mrs. James Brown, the bride's mother, chose to wear a charcoal-colored suit with black accessories, with Mrs. Peter Hornung, the groom's mother, wearing a light blue dress with dark blue accessories.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Narbonne High School, class of '52. The new Mrs. Richard W. Hornung is employed at the Bank of America, Torrance. The groom works for Stauffers Chemical.
