New Modern Furniture Store Opens

Fine, modern furniture economically priced will be featured at the Pioneer Furniture store, 2300 Pacific Coast highway (Cypress and Highway 101) in Lomita which is holding its grand opening today, tomorrow, and Saturday, December 3 to 5. The store, which carries a complete line of home furniture and the accompanying appliances will give away four prizes Friday night at 8 p.m. Everyone is invited to come to the store and register for these prizes without further obligations. Prize winners need not be present Friday night. A platform rocker, floor lamp, pair of table lamps, and a magazine rack will be given away. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dodd, owners of the new store, who have lived in Lomita for 15 years, stated that the store will be open every day and night of the week from now until Christmas. Lots of free parking is available to patrons.

A. Entenza Addresses Local Moose

A. P. Entenza, the new chairman of the California Athletic Commission and a former deputy supreme governor of the national Moose organization, was the principal speaker at initiation ceremonies conducted by the Torrance lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose this week, James Evans, secretary, announced. The San Pedro lodge ritual team supervised formal initiation proceedings inducting seven new members into the Moose order. CHARACTER IS what you are in the dark. — Dwight L. Moody.

Colonel's Coeds

Coeds in the ROTC? Well, not quite, but Donna Wolf, 21804 Halldale, Torrance was elected a new member of the Colonel's Coeds at Santa Barbara College of the University of California. The presentation of the award was made by Dr. J. Harold Williams, provost of Santa Barbara College, and during the ceremony, the UCSBC Battalion

Trios Will Elect Heads

Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240 celebrated Thanksgiving with a hot plum pudding made by the chairman of the evening, Mrs. Mayme Wells. The next meeting, December 9 at 8 p.m. will be election of officers and initiation of candidates. The Past Noble Grand Club will furnish the entertainment and refreshments. The meeting will be held at California Hall, 1932 Pacific Coast Highway.
