think of Pasadena which made me check on all the Pasadena papers. So I called the Pasadena Independent and asked if they had anyone with the initials L. H. working for them. They did. It was Lincoln Halmes, a columnist.

"And then you asked him what unusual thing he did involving Roberts recently?"

"Yeah, but he didn't know," Webber answered.

"So?"

"Calls Wife"

"So I decided to call Robert's wife. I said that I was interested in a story on her husband (which I was) and so we started talking about his friends and professional associates. Halmes? Sure she knew about him. When they had company recently he left early and their friends, who had depended on him for transportation, had to stay with the Robert's overnight."

"And that was the answer to the last clue?" I asked.

"Yep," Webber said with a seasoned professional air.

"And what did Mr. Roberts say?"

"He just looked at me and said, 'Congratulations, Mr. Webber, you have won. I didn't think you could do it.' And then, as an afterthought, Webber added, 'He calls me by my first name when he is in a good mood.'"

I got quite a kick out of "Mr. Webber." He had demonstrated a quality which is very important in any work: Ingenuity Swim Program, Dental Health Program, Boy Scouts and Little League Baseball alone were over $2,700. These projects were in addition to the regular expenditures for Underprivileged Children and Key Club, Ragsdale stated.

been none other than good, old "Kilroy" whom Darnell must have seen, with the aid of certain liquid refreshments."

Darnell, who was minding his own business and frying himself some eggs, was hardly pleased at Kilroy's rude ways. In honorable self defense, Darnell first threw the skillet and eggs, then the coffee pot, and finally the chair at the elusive Kilroy. Score: one broken double-glass door.

Ignoring this defeat and with every man is a volume if you know how to read him—undaunted courage, Darnell Channing.

Milk Cartons Disappear as Strike Drags garding the local Kids Day Activities held in September of each year.

The local Kids Day and Treasure Hunt sponsored by the Torrance Kiwanis Club is strictly a local project, a combined effort of the merchants and the club, according to President C. Ragsdale. Funds derived from this activity are all expended for local youth activity. There are no promotional costs. The Torrance Kiwanis Club has never given money to The National Kids Day Foundation, Inc., it was pointed out.

During the years of 1952 and 1953, the receipts from Kids Day were $2,445.23. During the same period, expenditures for
