Thomas, Lloyd Kemp, district supervisor for DMV; S. V. Kinley, branch office supervisor for the division, and Paul L. Oranger, president of the Chamber of Commerce.
 The office is staffed by a half dozen persons and managed by Leavitt Tudor.
 Tudor says he expects the office to handle about 1000 persons daily until the issuance of 1954 auto tabs is ended on February 4. Vehicles registration will be the only activity conducted until February 8.
 Tests for drivers' licenses will be given at a date to be announced later.

CATCH ROBBERY SUSPECT

An observant robbery victim and two alert, fast-working police officers this week brought about the arrest of two robbery suspects who admittedly robbed a Torrance resident of $40 at the point of a toy pistol at 4 a.m. Sunday morning, according to Det. Capt. Ernie Ashton of the Torrance police.
 Ordered to appear for their preliminary hearing January 29 on felony charges are Eldon J. Anderson, 25, and Floyd Vincent, 32, both of Los Angeles.

film is an adaptation of the best-selling book written by Jane McIlvaine.
 "It Happens Every Thursday," as well as its companion feature, "Young Bess," are both rated "very good," stated Joe Greene, manager of the Harbor Drive-in Theatre where the picture will be shown. Greene has just completed "Bronco Apache," a picture starring Burt Lancaster and Jean Peters, in which Greene plays the role of Diamond Jim Brady.
