Lions Hear District Attorney

Addressing a large Torrance Lions Club audience at their weekly noon luncheon Tuesday, District Attorney S. Ernie Roll provided an insight into the responsibilities of the D.A.'s office as well as listing the responsibilities of the public in keeping the wheels of law and order turning properly.

The D.A. was one of several interesting speakers appearing before the Lions Club this month through the efforts of Al Isen, program chairman.

Roll stressed the need of the public to serve as witnesses and on jury duty, saying that these two duties are the most important that the citizen can perform.
