MONDAY IS THE DAY

400 Artists Featured In Clyde Beatty Circus

Circus Day is just around the corner and pictured is "Blinko" who wants to remind you of the great event when the all new Clyde Beatty Gigantic 3 Ring Railroad Circus comes to Torrance on Monday, April 5 for afternoon and evening performances at 220th and Western avenue, show grounds scheduled at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. rain or shine, the doors opening one hour earlier.

A gigantic street parade through downtown Torrance at noon Monday will herald the colorful event, according to Chris Sorensen, president of the Optimist Club which is sponsoring the circus.

Blinko, famous Clyde Beatty circus clown, will be here together with 25 other clowns. The second largest railroad circus features 400 arenic artists and over 100 thrilling acts.

The full two hour show includes bare back riders, trapeze artists, juggling wizards, performing elephants, horses, and high wire bicycle dare devils.

Tickets to the "big top" event are available at Dave Figueroa's Service Station, Lawson Jewelry, Frank's Furniture, Daniel's Cafe and at Alter Realty's Walteria office, 3762 Pacific Coast Highway, according to Sorensen. He added that ticket booths will be set up at prominent downtown locations on Saturday.
