Other officers are: Mrs. Emma Daniels, of Hawthorne, vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Alexander, of Redondo Beach, secretary; Mrs. Adelaide Hamill, of Redondo Beach, treasurer.

Babbitt Named To Club Post

Donald Babbitt, graduate of Torrance high school, will assume the position of treasurer of the Associated Men Students of El Camino college, following elections completed recently on the campus.

Babbitt, who resides with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Babbitt of 1416 Crenshaw Boulevard, is a major in the field of engineering.

AFTERNOON NUPTIALS: Miss Doris Mae Forth became the bride of D. Lukens Jr., on Saturday, March 20, at 4 p. m. at the First Baptist Church. The couple will reside in China Lake, California.

D. Lukens Claims Doris Forth as Bride

Glowing tapers, white stocks and calla lilies formed the background for the wedding of Doris Mae Forth, daughter of Mrs. Ruby Molloy, 2073 West Carson street, to Daniel Lukens Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christie of China Lake, California, on Saturday, March 20.

The double ring ceremony, solemnized by Rev. C. M. Northrop, took place at the First Baptist Church of Torrance.

Preceding the entry of the bride, who was given in marriage by Warren Nasland, close family friend, Connie Stout and Carol June Moon, dressed alike in pastel pink gowns, lighted the cathedral candles. Rev. Russell Killman rendered two selections, With This Ring and The Lord's Prayer, to the accompaniment of Pat Clere, organist.

Bride's Gown

The bride was gowned in a dress of her own creation fashioned of white slipper satin with delicate lace covering the bodice and forming long finger-point sleeves. A short net veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of two orchids with love-knot streamers and a white bible, gift of the bridegroom.

Matron of Honor, Mrs. Joan Posey, wore a gown of pale green taffeta with matching green lace jacket. Bridesmaids, Nina Coppenhaver, Georgia Turnage and Melva Estes, were dressed alike in pastel gowns of taffeta and net. Each carried bouquets of purple orchids over white bibles, gifts of the bride.

Ushers

Attending the groom was George Kapsha, best man. Guests were seated by Dave Christianson, Don Forth, Hack Beeman and George Gregory.

Mary Catherine Molloy and Randy Lynn Christl, gowned alike in pink dresses, strewed the aisles with pink carnation petals. The rings were borne by Mikie Douglas.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Molloy wore a dress of navy blue with white accessories. Mrs. Christl was gowned in green with white accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rose buds.

Following the ceremony, 125 guests attended a reception in the church bungalow.

The new Mrs. Lukens is a graduate of Torrance High School and has been employed at Torrance National Bank. The groom attended schools in China Lake and is employed by the U. S. Navy there. The couple have announced to make their home in China Lake.

Co-op School Announces April Plans

The Board of Directors of Torrance Co-operative Nursery school met Monday evening at the home of Vice-president Mrs. Lon Monk, 2024 Cabrillo avenue, to formulate plans for April activities, according to Mrs. Jack Ackerman, press chairman.

Mrs. Robt. Evans, president, announced that a creative arts work shop will be conducted at Torrance High school cafeteria next Monday evening at 7 p. m. Plans include work on felt boards and making felt pictures for story telling, as well as other creative arts activities, Mrs. Ackerman disclosed.

The school will observe Easter vacation from April 11 to 19. Mrs. D. Law, family counselor, will be guest speaker at the next membership meeting, April 19.

Mrs. Virginia Foyle, director of the school, announced that the following members of the parent education class will lead a symposium on rivalries and jealousies in the family on April 26: Mrs. William Treiger, Mrs. Don West, Bruce Ogilvy and Galen Truesdell.

I-Act Plays Presented At High School

Future Broadway playwrights had an opportunity to see their writings as the audience sees them last Saturday night when Torrance high school staged three original one-act plays in the high school auditorium.

Seeking both recognition and Rosemary DeCamp trophy awards, 10 students entered their original plays. Three were selected by the judges for presentation Saturday.

Presented were: "Dawn," by Leon Serin; "Safe Crackers Suite," by Rodney Williams and Jerry Westmoreland; and "Road to Freedom," by Carol Davis and Carl Larson. The five young writers will receive the DeCamp trophies at the school's annual awards banquet later in the school year.

Following the performances, Miss DeCamp, famous screen, radio and TV actress, Dr. F. Butler of USC drama school, and D. Griffith of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, offered criticism and comment on each of the three plays.

This is the third showing of student-written one-act plays at the local high school. L. Bereskin, faculty advisor, disclosed that Torrance high school is one of the first in the country to present original work in this manner.

All writing, direction, enactment and production was carried out by students, with assistance by Mrs. Nancy Goodrich, V. Hershey and Bereskin, faculty advisors.

Huge Audience Attends Spring Fashion Showing

Buttons and bows, along with satins and sequins, held the spotlight last night as the Torrance Women's Club staged their fourth annual spring fashion show before a sell-out audience at Civic Auditorium.

The show featured outstanding, new fashion creations for all occasions and all hours by some of America's leading designers and manufacturers. Both professional and local models displayed the apparel, and Rosemary DeCamp, well-known radio, screen and TV actress, provided commentary on each style. Mrs. B. T. Whitney acted as mistress of ceremonies.

Floral Decor

A huge floor basket of spring flowers from Bradley Gardens provided a simple and graceful background as the models crossed the stage showing to full advantage the many different fashion styles, all of which came from the Sam Levy Dept. Store. Background music for the entire show was provided by Mrs. James Burchett at the piano.

Refreshments of cake, coffee and tea were served following the showing, under the direction of Mrs. N. S. Gregory. Assisting her were the following members of the Senior Woman's Club: Mmes. V. D. Benard, R. Bingham, Hugh Bowman, F. P. Foley, H. L. Mitchell, and Miss Frances Dimitri. Junior Woman's Club members who aided with refreshment were: Mmes. J. A. Barrington, R. R. Dexter, R. C. Morton, Don Moyer, Royal Penner, C. Rippey Jr., Robert Stewart, F. Williams, Paul Winn and Joe Rojo. Individual tables were decorated in the Easter theme, using many types of flowers.

Seniors To Honor Former Officers

Past presidents of the Torrance Senior Women's club will be honored at a luncheon to be held at the Woman's club house next Wednesday. Mrs. Grover C. VanDeventer, president, will act as mistress of ceremonies and introduce past presidents attending the function.

Mrs. Murrill A. Grow, lecturer and writer, will deliver a talk and demonstration on flower arrangements with emphasis on the Easter theme. Her demonstration will include arrangements made with dry materials as well as flowers, according to club officials.

It is anticipated that 20 past presidents will be among the guests at the affair.

Velko Miletich Honored With Surprise Party

Velko Miletich, of 1566 West 216th street, was surprised on his birthday, March 18, when family and friends gathered for a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vico of Palos Verdes. Mrs. Stella Miletich and Mrs. George Vico, mother and sister, respectively, of the honoree, shared hostess honors with Mrs. Velko Miletich.

Parlor games such as spoons, pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey, and a walk-the-plank were enjoyed by the guests. The highlight of the evening came when Velko opened his gag gifts to find exploding fountain pens, spiders jumping out of a box, a bubble head, and a package of weiners. Following this, a buffet supper was served.

Guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, Bill Davis, Helen Pilant, and Evalene Marcucci.

POWER POINTER for kite flying fun—and safety—follow the rules!

There are very few sports which can be enjoyed with as little equipment as kite flying. That's probably one reason it has been so popular with young and old for thousands of years. Even the rules are simple, but they're very important! You'll have a lot more fun if you remember them:

1. Fly kites in an open field, away from electric power lines and other overhead obstructions.
2. Be sure the string is perfectly dry.
3. Never use wire, tinsel or metallic string.
4. If the kite catches in a power line, let go immediately. Don't pull! Phone the company owning the line and a lineman will get your kite for you.
