

BABY CONTEST

ternoon beginning at 2 o'clock in El Prado Park (El Prado and Cravens.) Supervision and judging will be carried on by the newly formed Torrance Adult Club (TAC).

The event scheduled to take place on El Prado Park between Arlington avenue and Cravens avenue will be the first of its kind in the Southland and possibly in the United States, it was disclosed.

Registration

Registrations for entering the Easter "Baby" Parade will be taken at Torrance Recreation department offices beginning Monday, April 12. The office is located at 1347 El Prado, and the telephone number is FA 8-4108.

Parents will be asked to furnish the following information: Parents name and address, child's name, sex, birthdate, and age on April 18, 1954. Everyone who can do so is urged to register before the day of the contest.

Although all the prizes for the contest have not been secured at this date, it is anticipated that there will be many awards contributed by the local merchants and manufacturers of baby products.

There will be two general divisions of contestants: 1) babies 23 months old and younger, (The Baby Division), and 2) Department offices beginning tiny tykes, two to four years old.

Baby Division

The Baby Division will consist of the following classifications: The youngest, The fattest,

The most outstanding red hair, The most outstanding blue eyes, The longest eyelashes, The most outstanding dark eyes, The most outstanding tow head, and the most outstanding twins. The King and Queen of Baby Week, selected to reign over Baby May 1 to May 7, will also be determined from among all the contestants in the Baby Division.

Tiny Tykes

The Tiny Tykes Division will feature the following classifications: (for boys) most debonaire, brightest, flashiest Easter tie, and man of distinction; (for girls) daintiest, prettiest Easter bonnet, most ruffles; (for both boys and girls) best-made costume, most attractively tailored costume, most attractively matched costume, and most attractive twins.

The King and Queen of Spring will be selected to rule over the event from among the entrants in the Tiny Tykes Division. Selection of the King and Queen in both divisions will

Plan Caribbean Tour

Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum have disclosed that they will leave Saturday for Galveston, Texas, where they will embark on the S. S. Jean Lykes for a Caribbean cruise.

Their itinerary includes trips in the Canal Zone, Venezuela, Colombia and Puerto Rico. Dr. Fossum will be away from his office until May 20, he said.

be based on a number of things including Poise, Personality, Health and Costume.

In the event that the weather on Easter Sunday is rainy or otherwise bad, the Easter "Baby" Parade will be held in the Torrance Civic Auditorium right across the street from El Prado Park.

nothing of any women aboard the plane. Hernandez operated a Mexicali auto agency and ice plants at Rocky Point and Mexicali, both in Mexico, according to late news reports.

Among those who joined in the hunt for the missing plane at Corona was Roger Gesner, 22, 2309 246th place. Gesner is a ground officer with the Forty-third Squadron, Seventh Group of the Civil Air Patrol. He was joined by three other cadets from the Torrance airport base. The group went in a truck donated by Carl L. Cheadle's Transfer and Moving Service.
