Armstrong Home Scene Of Gay Voyage Fete

By MARY BARRETT

Last Saturday evening the LeRoy Armstrong residence at 1633 Juniper street, Torrance, was the scene of a gay combination bon voyage and birthday party in honor of Ethel Miretti of San Pedro, given by twenty of her classmates, sophomores and juniors of Marymount, Palos Verdes. Miss Miretti is leaving May 29 for an extensive European tour, and May 27 is her birthday.

Hostesses were Carol Armstrong and Marilyn Revell of Torrance and Kathleen Carroll and Christine Randow of San Pedro.

Highlighting the buffet dinner was a cleverly fabricated airplane made of a child's car with pants stretchers attached for wings, the whole innovation covered with silver paper, to hold the array of lovely gifts presented the honoree.

Also used for decoration was a toy transport suspended from the chandelier, the little plane printed with the names of countries and towns in Europe that Miss Miretti will visit . . . Italy, Switzerland, Paris, and Madrid. The cake, which was ordered before the Mirettis changed their plans to go by boat, was decorated with a brown ship, "Boat of Dreams," with "Bon Voyage" in blue and yellow lettering.

The guests gathered for the send-off included Miss Katherine Cartee, teacher, Lyndell Moore, Jeanette Osborn, Judy Kuhlman, Mary Ann Desmond, Nancy Viehhaus, Mary Ball, Joan Arden, Delores Troelich, Dianne Manqueras, Sheila McGee, Marie Vitce, Louise Krabel, Josie Puetz, Frances Case and Carolee Glenn.

DANCE SLATED

May 29, at 8 p.m. is the time set for a "hard time" dance at McMaster Hall, sponsored by the North Torrance civic improvement association for the benefit of the dental health fund. Clinton Beedon, president of the association, extends a hearty welcome to the public to come and get acquainted with their neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miera, 25099 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, announce the birth of a son, James Beauregard H. Born on May 14 at Torrance Memorial hospital, and weighed 5 pounds and 11 ounces.

Friends And Kin Surprise Long Wed Pair With Party

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Wilson, better known to their many friends as Annie and Woodrow, were surprised during their TV program the other night by thirty-three relatives and friends who dropped in with a huge cake commemorating the Wilsons' 39th wedding anniversary. The cake, decorated with a white frothy wedding motif, was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Relatives and friends gathering to honor the long-wed pair were Messrs. and Mesdames Jack Tucker and daughter, Betty; Basil Brady and sons, Howard, Basil Jr., and daughter, Leta; James Fitzgibbon and daughter, Linda, and son, James; George Wilson and son, Richard; Virgil Tucker and daughter, Rosalind; Ralph Hosten and daughters, Patricia and Charlene; Raymond Tucker and daughter, Meredith; Mesdames Jewel Gifford, Doris West, Bobbie Turner, Carl Ramsey and 4-month-old grandson, Terry Lyn; Sammy Veca, Bob Kinder, and Mr. Le Verne Brady.

The Wilsons have been residents of Torrance since 1924, and have lived at 2230 West 231st street for the past 22 years.
