

4 Dog Bites Reported Here

Four people were bitten by dogs within recent weeks. Medical attention was needed though none of the bites were found to be serious.

Cheryl Davis, 9, daughter of John Davis, 3332 189th st., was bitten while riding her bike. She was treated at Harbor General hospital.

The son of Arthur Berthiaume, 18536 Regina, was bitten near the eye by a dog owned by Mrs. Verlie Longshore, 18537 Regina.

Taken to Park Emergency Hospital, Gardena, after being bitten by a dog at Cream-O-

Farm dairy, 3133 was Lillian Dousher.

Possibly bitten by a cocker spaniel was Rene Rochiville, 3, of 3216 Raintree. The child was taken to a physician for a complete check-up.

Army Pvt. William D. Bryant, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Bryant, 2819 178th st., Torrance, Calif., will participate in the Pacific Northwest's largest combined air-ground training maneuver, Exercise Hill Top, to be held this month at Yakima Firing Center in south-central Washington.

OO-LA-LA! . . . These are the first four contestants to sign up for the 'Miss Torrance' beauty contest sponsored by the Torrance Area Youth Bands. Left to right: (front) Shirlee Salzman, 19; Norma Quine, 17, sponsored by Oscar Maples; (back) Sue Mayers, 15½, sponsored by Verburg dairy; and Nancy LaDuke.

3 More Candidates Enter 'Miss Torrance' Contest

Three more Torrance "cuties" this week joined the growing list of candidates for the "Miss Torrance" queen contest. Shirlee Salzman, 19, one of the runners-up in last year's contest filed her application this week as did Norma Quine, 17, and Sue Mayers, 15½.

Miss Quine is being sponsored by the Oscar Maples Ford agency. Verburg Dairy is sponsoring Miss Mayers.

Miss Nancy LaDuke, sponsored by the Torrance Optimist club, filed her entry last week. These girls along with other Torrance queen aspirants will vie for the title of Miss Torrance of 1955 in a huge pageant to be presented in the civic auditorium on Friday night, July 30.

The winner, accompanied by a chaperone, will receive an all expense paid week-end trip to Las Vegas via Western Airlines.

Any Torrance unmarried girl between the ages of 15½ and 30 is eligible to compete. Applications may be procured at the Torrance flower shop, corner of Cravens and Post avenue.

Girls are required to have a sponsor who must pay the initial entry fee of five dollars. Girls will be judged on face, figure, poise, voice, and charm, by a panel of judges headed by Oscar Meinhardt, director of the Miss Universe pageant.
