Five Initiated In Lodge 240 Trio Rebekah

Trio Rebekah Lodge 240 was honored by the visit of Deputy grand master, Arthur Tibert of the grand lodge of California, and Florence Bonete, past president of California.

Trio initiated into the lodge five new members Wednesday evening June 9. The new members are Mrs. Lillian Young, Mrs. Eva Haupt, Mrs. Arneal Surber, Mr. Charles Surber and Mr. Ray Rerrin. Also admitted to membership in Trio by deposit of card were Mrs. Edith Bench, and Mr. Perry Coler. The brothers are members of the new Trio Subordinate Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Mrs. Hattie Schroeder was appointed as Good Fellowship chairman for the ensuing year.

Past Noble Grand's were hostesses for the evening. Trio will hold its next regular meeting June 21. An ice cream social has been scheduled for the evening and the Rebekahs have invited Trio Subordinate Odd Fellows Lodge to join them in refreshments and entertainment. Trio Rebekah Lodge meets at the California Hall, 1932 Pacific Coast highway, Lomita.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN RICHARD TIPPIN... wed last Saturday in double ring ceremony during Nuptial Mass at Nativity Church.

Tippin-Browning Names Join At Nuptial Mass

Before a throng of approximately 300 persons, Beverly Jeanne Browning and John Richard Tippin exchanged rings and vows last Saturday morning during 11 a.m. Nuptial Mass at Nativity Catholic Church, Father Robert Gara officiating.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Mr. Wayne Walker Browning, the bride wore a fitted bodice gown of imported lace over white satin with a floor length bouffant hoop skirt and train. Her white veil had clusters of pearls at each side, and a pearl encrusted coronet encircled her head. On her white prayer book she carried white stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert W. Browning, sister-in-law of the bride, and matron of honor wore pink net over satin and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Bridesmaids were Misses Jane Fischer and Beth Brandes, whose gowns were aqua net over satin, enhanced by the bouquets of yellow roses they carried. Acting as best man for the groom was Mr. Eugene Maddy of Oakland, and ushers were Messrs. Calvin W. Browning, brother of the bride; Robert D. Wilson of Redondo, and Edgar Polston.

Jimmy Polston was ring bearer. The flower girls, wearing yellow organdie and satin, were Mary Ann Polston and Michele Wilson. Mrs. Browning, mother of the bride, wore a sheer navy silk dress with pink accessories and rosebud corsage, while the groom's mother, Mrs. John W. Tippin, wore a powder blue silk ensemble, set off by the rosebud corsage she wore.

Mr. Tippin, son of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Tippin, of 1333 Post avenue, Torrance, is a graduate of Manual Arts high school, and is now employed at the Torrance Douglas plant, having returned a year ago from duty in Japan.

Miss Browning, daughter of the Wayne Walker Brownings of 1020 Acacia street, Torrance, graduated from Torrance High, spent a year at Pepperdine College, and has just graduated from the Bishop Johnson College of Nursing at the Hospital of the Good Samaritan in Los Angeles.

Dear Parents: A word about the importance of early Cultural training for your child. The time in life when character and sound mental and moral fibre is built into human beings, is during the formative years of 3 to 8. Activities and early training should be chosen with care. Excellent training can be obtained in a good dance school where they learn rhythm, punctuality, responsibility, and how to accept directions. Dancing also develops grace, poise and posture in addition to dance techniques. Enroll your child now in the summer term at the STOVER-LANE DANCE STUDIO, 1722 So. Catalina, Redondo. Eight week term starting June 22 to August 14. Phone FRontier 5-1938.
