BEAUTY ALONE BASIS FOR JUDGING 'MISS TORRANCE'

Beauty of face, beauty of figure, charm, poise and personality will be the important factors in choosing the new "Miss Torrance" at the Beauty Pageant to be held in the civic auditorium on Friday night, July 30.

This was revealed this week in a letter from Oscar Meinhardt who will be chairman of the panel of judges for the event. Meinhardt, one of the nation's leading authorities on beauty and beauty pageants, is executive director of the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant held annually in Long Beach.

Beauty Consultant
Barbara Blakeley, beauty consultant to the Miss Universe contest will also be on hand to help judge the Torrance contest. She will present to the winner a 16 week free course in her modeling and charm school which is located in Long Beach. Many professional models and Hollywood starlets are graduates of her school.

Miss Universe of 1955, to be chosen in Long Beach on July 25, will be on hand to help Sandra Lee Constance, winner of last year's contest, crown the new queen.

Star
Anita Aros, brilliant young violinist of motion picture, radio and TV fame, will play several selections during the courses of the evening's two hour show.

Any girl of Torrance between the ages of 15 1/2 and 30 is eligible to compete in this local contest. Applications are available at the Torrance Flower shop, corner of Cravens and Post avenues. According to Jack Heptig, chairman of the contest, nothing is required of the girls but to exhibit their face, figure, charm, poise, and personality, before the panel of judges during the night of the contest.

Sponsor

This contest is sponsored annually by the Torrance Area Youth Bands. Girls and their sponsors who have enrolled to date include: Nancy LaDuke, Torrance Optimist Club, Norma Quine, Oscar Maples Ford agency, Eue Mayers, Verburg Dairy, and Shirlee Salzman, Sam Levy Department store.

Food Giant Planned For Crenshaw Shopping Center

Cummings Markets, inc., operators of the famous Food Giant markets, announced plans for a new million dollar grocery store in the Crenshaw-Imperial shopping center in Inglewood. Theodore E. Cummings, president of Cummings Markets, announced that the new Food Giant supermarket will contain 50,000 square feet. It will feature complete air conditioning, terrazo floors, luminous ceilings, sixteen checkstands and a continuous belt-conveyor which will carry customer's packages from the checkstands out to a package pick up station in the 800 car parking lot.

Construction Date
Construction of the new Food Giant will begin in July and will be completed early next year. The supermarket will incorporate the very newest and most modern improvements in market design and engineering, according to Cummings. The Imperial-Crenshaw Shopping center, of which the Food Giant will be part, will cost approximately $5,000,000 and will serve an area populated by 300,000 people. As it's neighbors in the shopping center, the Food Giant will have W. T. Grant Department store, Huddle restaurant, and several other major retail chains.

DEVOUT ALLEY CAT

MARY, a stray alley cat, has been living off the generosity of Torrance Memorial hospital nurses, and the St. Andrews and Nativity churches. Monday she headed for the St. Andrews rummage closet, picked out a suitable box, and gave birth to five little kittens. Their names? Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, and Paul. "At least, till further notice," said Mrs. Irene Swenson. "Who knows, we might have to name one of them 'Christine!'" Three of the five are still waiting to be adopted.
