Mayor Nick Draie considered such a tax "unfair." Similar opinions were expressed by Councilmen Willys Blount and Mervin M. Schwab. The tax was suggested originally by Councilman Albert Isen.

174TH STREET: Formal dedication of the new highway has been set for Tuesday, July 20, at 2 p.m. The ribbon-cutting ceremony will be held at Crenshaw and 174th street.

YOUTH BAND: Approximately 700 post cards requesting an appropriation of $4800 for the Torrance area youth band were received by the city council. The matter was referred to the budget committee.

HOUSE NUMBERS: House numbers on 182nd street east of Crenshaw seem to be all mixed up, according to Anthony Blilotti, area representative. Residents have been asked to meet with the building department to get matters straightened out.

HIGHWAY 101: Signs setting up a 45 m. p. h. speed limit will be erected along Pacific Coast highway in the "immediate future," according to a letter from the state. The zone will stretch from city limit to city limit.

photographs submitted by 5 p.m. every Monday.

Rules
Any amateur photographer living within the circulation area of this newspaper may enter as many as six separate pictures in the contest, but no more than one per week.

Judges named to select the winners are Ralph R. Gompertz, assistant editor of the Torrance Press; James Giacalone, manager of A-1 Photo Supplies, and James Krueger, owner of Photo Arts Studio.

For the last week of the Torrance Press annual amateur photography contest any pictures may be submitted so long as they were taken by individuals living within this paper's circulation area. Pictures need not be of a local nature!

Judging will be based on originality and composition. Any amateur lens-enthusiast between the ages of 8 and 80 is eligible.

POWDERED MILK

Moisture-proof and air-tight packaging, with low oxygen, does much to keep today's powdered milk from acquiring a stale or tallowy taste, according to Helge Shipstead, dairy technologist on the University of California Davis campus.

Entries may either be brought or mailed to the Torrance Press office, 1406 Cravens avenue, along with the name, address, phone and age of the entrant.

Money collected from the meters will be used to purchase additional off-street parking facilities for Torrance residents.

Off-Street Parking
In order to purchase some off-street parking lots in the downtown area immediately adjacent to property owners have agreed to form an assessment district whereby they agree to stand the cost of the parking lots.

The only cost involved for Torrance residents is what it costs them to park where there

TASTE TEST

Researchers in the department of food technology on the Davis campus of the University of California found that taste panels can spot a 0.04 per cent salt water solution. This amounts to approximately one tablespoon of salt in 10 gallons of water.

are parking meters.

Voting in favor of the meters were Mayor Nick Draie and Councilman Willys Blount, Albert Isen, and Mervin Schwab.

Councilman Victor Benstead remained opposed to the meters as he had been from the start.

After the adoption of the parking meter ordinance he moved that the matter be placed on the October special election ballot. This motion died for want of being seconded.

The ordinance passed at its second and final hearing with hardly a ripple of opposition.

WEST BASIN

Hedger, chief engineer of the flood control district.

Although operated by flood personnel, financing of the venture is with funds allocated by the state, county and a special tax of the entire West Basin district.

Wells along the shoreline inject fresh water into the ground to form a dam to keep salt water from pushing into the underground fresh water supply.

ROYALTIES IN URANIUM

The Navajo tribe of Indians collected more than $321,000 in royalties from uranium during the year 1951, reports the National Automobile club.

Plans call for extension of the wells along the entire South Bay ocean front.

OCEAN MINING

Manganese, nickel, and cobalt may some day be added to the list of valuable minerals obtained from the sea, according to a prediction made by Doctors Norris Rakestraw and Edward Goldberg of the University of California.
