There were times when the judges wished they could name several winners. Even then, the photo which was finally chosen, rated just a bit higher than its closest competitors.

Pick Up Photos
All those who entered photographs for the contest may pick them up now, if they would like to have them back. It is requested that you call for them on Thursdays or Fridays between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. or on Saturdays before noon if possible.

The six finalists are requested to leave their photos here until the final judging. Finalists who will be considered for the six prizes are: Russell H.
