

Local Girl
Paints 168-Ft.
Water Tower

Norma Padron, 20, of Torrance, is spending her summer vacation painting a 168-foot high water tower in suburban

St. Louis Park near Minneapolis, Minnesota. Miss Padron and a girl friend from Long Beach, hitchhiked from California and joined the paint crew in Glenwood, Iowa. Gloria's stepfather, Donald Wylie, is field superintendent for the firm which contracted to paint the tower.

PLAYING IT COOL!

ONLY FOR EMERGENCY... When the heat became too much for kids at McMaster park this week, Playground Director Les Breitenfeldt convinced the near-by fire station that he had a real problem on hand which needed the attention of the fire department. In a matter of seconds, local youngsters found that they had the heat problem licked.

Elections Held
By Harbor City
C. of C. Board

E. R. Beck was elected new president of Harbor City Chamber of Commerce during a special election meeting of the board of directors at the home of Mrs. Frances Hensel, 25108 South Normandie avenue.

Re-elected as treasurer of the Chamber was Earl Christensen, who has held the office for over 20 years.

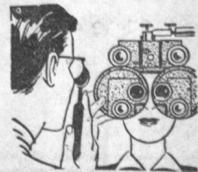

Named to assist Beck were C. F. King, first vice president; Mrs. Hensel, second vice-president; and Mrs. Louise Coleman, secretary.

The only chairmanship filled at the session was the publicity post which was assigned to Mrs. Hensel.

Additional chairmanship will be delegated as soon as Beck has completed his program outline for the coming year.

July 27 was the tentative date set for the next board meeting, with the location to be announced later.
