PARENTS DEMAND BUS SERVICE

More than 160 mothers and fathers have signed a petition asking for bus transportation for their children. The petition calls for such transportation for children who must now cross hazardous Vermont and Figueroa on Ocean avenue in order to get to the 232nd st. school. The petition will be submitted to the L. A. Board of Education.

This information was revealed by Mrs. T. Farrell of 22822 Petroleum avenue who is spearheading the move.

There are no signals or crossing guards at either street, the petition maintains.
