16 Tired Scouts Given Awards At End Of Trek

Sixteen young men from Boy Scout Troop 315 stepped off a bus last week with their camping packs resting heavily on their backs. These packs had been their "companions" during the five days the boys had been gone, earning their Silver moccasins.

As soon as the dirt was washed away, the parents recognized the boys as being: Bob Chapman, Ronnie Burpo, Jack McNeill, Dennis Chapman, Ronnie Walters, Don Swanson, Ray Snively, Bob Wolf, Ronnie Cook, Bill Sandusky, Fred Bunch, Steve Blackmon, Bob Maddox, Clifford Ichiyaso, David Ritchey, Danny Hoag, and Walter Schwass.

Under the supervision of R. A. Cooper, the scoutmaster, the boys started their hike at Chantry Flats and ended at Camp Pepperdine (now known as Camp Verdugo Hills), some 7200 feet high and 65 miles further. On the second day out, the boys were met by their parents at Charlton Flats.

This hike is used as an opportunity for training the boys in good citizenship through the observation of good scout-like conduct. The boys had many experiences they will never forget such as eating rattlesnake meat for dinner, doctoring two-inch blisters on their heels, preparing campsites, and cooking their own meals. They will all receive special citations.

The Boy Scout troop is sponsored by the Royal Order of the Moose of Torrance.

Dental Health Association Cites Success

The regular meeting of the Torrance Dental Health Ass'n. held at the Torrance Board of Education offices August 4th was highlighted by committee reports and formulation of plans for the coming school year. The financial report showed a record work accomplishment as the group ended another successful school year. Indications from estimated and expected population increase in the Torrance area pointed out that at least 500 indigent children will need dental care which is necessary and available to them only under this plan, President Paul Diamond announced today.

The popularity of this civic service group is shown by the interest of volunteer committeemen and workers from other civic minded groups such as service clubs, professional organizations, property owners.

President Paul Diamond, local merchant, announced the appointment of Dale Isenberg, Exec. Sec'y of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Vera Wright to head the public relations and publicity committee.
