Two Teachers Join Staff At Stover-Lane

Stover-Lane Dance Studio, 1722 South Catalina street, in the Hollywood Riviera, has announced the addition of two teachers who have joined the staff for the coming year.

From the American School of Ballet in Hollywood comes Bob Son de Regger, who will instruct in modern free-style. This new popular form of dancing incorporates ballet with the broader free moderne technique.

B. J. Brimley, well known in the South Bay for voice culture, will be available at Stover-Lane for both private and class instruction.

Other teachers at the studio include Mildred Stover, Ruth Kettl, and Carl Witmer.

Son de Regger will give a two hour free workshop on Friday, September 26, for the master class... dance students 8 years of age and up. The class will start at 6 p.m. and students are asked to register at the studio, and to bring their practice clothes. Boys are more than welcome, the teachers stressed.

Last Teenage Dance Slated At Auditorium

The Torrance Recreation Department announced today that the last teenage dance of the summer vacation is slated for this coming Saturday night at the Civic Auditorium. The Recreation Staff has promised an evening full of entertainment and surprises at the Back-to-School Dance beginning at 8 p.m. and ending at 11:30 p.m.

All money derived from the dance will go to the High School Student Body Fund, to be added to the money set aside for High School Band Uniforms.

Ranch Market Draws Crowds At Opening

The Hawthorne Ranch Market which last week held its grand opening in the new building at the corner of Prairie avenue and Compton boulevards, drew a tremendous response from the people of Torrance as over 5000 customers visited the new market over the weekend.

according to the Krekorian family, owners of the new market.

Garden fresh vegetables, fruit, eggs, and other produce, will continue to be offered at bargain prices which were enjoyed over the weekend, it was disclosed.

Charlene R. Bezanson has been employed by the Torrance Unified School District as a clerk-stenographer.
