

EASTERN STAR TO OBSERVE BROTHERS NITE

Brothers Night will be observed by Lomita Eastern Star Chapter at the Masonic Temple on Sept. 17, it was announced this week.

Recently, the group convened after a vacation period, with Worthy Matron Dorothy Faulkner and Worthy Patron Jack Graham presiding.

Deputy Grand Matron Frances Weston was given escort and presented from the East, and the past Deputy Grand Matron Edna Babcock filled the chair of condescuss.

Also presented from the East and given escort were Worthy Matron Mable Coffee and Worthy Patron James Coffman.

CDA VOTES TO FORM JR. COURT

Last Monday evening Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, held its monthly business meeting with Mrs. Frank A. Gately, grand regent, presiding. Although brought up during the latter part of the meeting, the high point of discussion was the Court sponsorship of a Junior Court of CDA.

Members voted to institute the young group for girls 12 to 18 years of age, as this phase of Catholic Daughters is regarded as one of the most important in the varied program of CDA, and strongly endorsed by the national organization.

Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Gerald Loew, Leroy Armstrong, Anna McIntier, James Catena, F. C. Rick, and L. J. Moeder.

Mary Margaret Cash Wed To Gale W. Wigginton

Miss Mary Margaret Cash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Cash of 1101 Maple street, Torrance, was wed recently during a quiet double ring ceremony to Mr. Gale W. Wigginton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wigginton, 1342 West 221st street, Torrance.

The young couple exchanged rings and vows before the Rev. J. L. Mentle, Jr., of Yuma, in the Lutes Wedding Chapel in Yuma, Arizona.

Bride's Ensemble

Walking to the altar of the chapel on the arm of her father, the bride wore a vintage red knit suit with long sleeves and tiny collar. Her accessories were all white, and she wore a shoulder corsage of all white gardenias, stepanotis, and carnations. An heirloom touch were the gold earrings she wore which belonged to her grandmother.

Sister of the groom, Miss Emma Wigginton, was the bride's sole attendant, and she wore a cardinal colored full-skirted nylon net over taffeta dress, with white accessories and a white carnation shoulder corsage.

Mothers' Gowns

For the occasion the groom's mother chose a navy blue nylon net over taffeta gown accented with red touches matching the carnation shoulder piece she wore. Mrs. Cash wore grey nylon and red accessories with a corsage of white gardenias.

The former Miss Cash was a members of Torrance Job's Daughters, and was one of the Accordionettes of Bettie Thomas
