HEARING SET FOR OCT. 18

Lomita Property Owners and Registered Voters association will ask for a new type of zone when the current zone plan for Lomita comes up for a hearing

October 18.

The group, calling the zone
"H for Hobby," state that the proposed zone plan would take away "freedom of their backyards" by not allowing hobbies, such as farming.

At present, there is no provision in zoning ordinances for such a zone, it was reported.
