EL NIDO CARNIVAL SATURDAY

The carnival spirit will prevail at El Nido playground this Saturday as the El Nido P-TA sponsors their Halloween festivity from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. Presiding at various booths will be P-TA members costumed according to their respective wares.

A food booth will be in charge of a jolly Aunt Jemima, while in charge of the plant booth will be a member made up as a scarecrow. A can-can costumed girl will be selling canned goods and so on.

Hot dogs, hamburgers, soft drinks, and all the fun afforded by a carnival will be featured.

Steve Mearing is second baseman on the Seaside softball team, a member of the Junior Boys Softball League.

BROWNIES ENJOY NEW TIN-CAN CLUB HOUSE

Girls of Brownie Troop No. 1588 were certain this week that they have one of the most unusual club houses ever built... it looks like a log cabin but is made of tin cans welded together.

A total of 2000 tin cans went into the making of the house which is painted a reddish brown color. The cans are soldered together and screwed to metal channels with a wooden wall on the inside.

"Architect" of the tin-can-club-house is Bill Abernathy, one of the fathers.

Built in sections, the club house can be dismantled if the need ever arises.

Dads who helped include: John Breiner, Bob Clemens, Robert Evans, Art Haley and Robert Lusian.

Sonny Gore is shortstop on the Walteria Park softball team. The team is a member of the Junior Boys Softball League.

N. Torrance P-TA Urges Stop Signs

The October meeting of the executive board of the North Torrance Elementary P-TA was held October 6 at the home of Mrs. W. O. Wilson. The board heard a report by Mrs. Francis Stoeckle on the progress being made in securing a stop sign for children crossing the 174th and Casimir intersection to the North Torrance Elementary School.

Mrs. Stoeckle reported that the State Division of Highways has made a survey to see if the crossing has enough traffic to warrant a stop sign. A report of the survey is expected soon.

Three new chairmen were ratified during the meeting to fill vacancies due to resignations during the summer. Mrs. Peter Bruce will be magazine chairman, Mrs. Gordon Wood, hospitality and Mrs. Lloyd Van de Vort, publicity.

Girl Scouts Hold Court of Awards

Banning Park was the scene of the Court of Awards held on Sunday, October 3, by Girl Scouts Troop 1293, which is sponsored by Madrona P-TA. The girls had their families share a potluck meal with them prior to the ceremony.

Mrs. E. Carl Osterlind, leader expressed regret at the resignation of Mrs. Paul Brunner, co-leader. In appreciation of her leadership the girls presented her with a certificate and a gift.

committee member was Mrs. La Verne Peterson.

Linda Lewis and Jocelyn Meggett were invested as scouts, and sharing in the ceremony were the scouts who were awarded the Proficiency badges: Kathleen Brady, Jerry Ann Brunner, Carolyn Church, Carla Conklin, Kaaren Crist, Nanette Gallo, Janice Jackson, Patsy Lewis, Joan Max, Judy Motoyasu, Carla Osterlind, Betty Stroman, Mitzi Yoshioka, and Pauline Yuasa.
