

At Kiwanis Club meeting last Monday, president-elect Jerry Eastham and 2nd vice-president-elect Jay Barrington, reported on the 34th annual district convention held at Reno, Nevada, October 17 to 20.

The Gateway Council P-TA met at Narbonne High School this week. Speaking on "Student Welfare on Secondary Level" was Mrs. Francis E. Wood, Tenth District child welfare bureau manager.

ACCIDENTS

McGee's car. McGee claims not to have seen the man until it was too late because of a car which pulled in front of him and which he was about to pass on the left side.

Suffering minor injuries in a collision at Arlington and 164th street Sunday afternoon was Gloria Ann Fry, 18, of Gardena, when her car was struck by one driven by Jack G. Hendrick, 24, of March Air Force Base.

Hendrick was booked on drunk driving. Hendrick rammed into Miss Fry's car when the latter came to a complete halt for a boulevard stop.

3 Marines
Three marines received minor injuries in a traffic accident at Pacific Coast Highway and Winlock drive, Saturday night. Taken to Harbor General Hospital and later transferred to Navy Hospital was Paul R. Frambes, 19, passenger in a car driven by Robert L. Patterson, 22, of Long Beach Naval Station.

Driver of the other car which ran into the allegedly slower-moving Patterson car was John R. Clipson, 21 and John J. Grisbaum, 21, also marines. They were treated by a private physician for minor injuries, according to police.

Traffic accident figures for this year line up as follows:

April	52	19
May	41	10

H C Group To Sponsor Scout Troops

At a recent board meeting of Harbor City P-TA held in the school cafeteria, the members voted to sponsor Cub Scout Pack 743-C, and the new Boy Scout Troop 743.

Dr. Gilmore from the city Health Dept. addressed the association meeting held October 21, in the school auditorium.

The Community Chest film of the year titled "The Endless Days" with Peter Graves, was also shown.

The Community Chest drive will be November 4 in Harbor City. Child care will be provided. Immunization against diphtheria-tetanus will be given the students on November 5, parents with pre-schoolers may bring the children to school at 8:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Nicholls, of 19132 Firmons Ave., announce the birth of a daughter, Penny Ann, weighing 7 pounds and 6 ounces.

With faith and perseverance, Harry E. Finch, a father of six children who lives at 20816 Margaret street, hopes some day to gain recognition as a song writer and see the 525 songs which he has written published and sung throughout the nation.

TV audiences have had a chance to see the Torrance man three times within the last few weeks. Finch's song was one of the three finalists on the Spade Cooley show, though it did not hit the top.

Finch again appeared on TV when he helped Paul Coates expose phony song publishing firms of which Finch himself has been a victim.

The song writer's most recent appearance was on the Hal Styles show, "Help Thy Neighbor" at which time Styles tried to help Finch find a publisher for his songs.

Finch, who is 39 years old and weighs 97 pounds, says he has been writing music the last 15 years. He has never had any musical training and writes lyrics and music without the use of an accompanying instrument.

The local man has written novelty, western, and religious music.

Becomes Ill

Finch, his wife, Roma, and their six children, came to California in 1943. He worked for North American but became ill, suffering a nervous breakdown. He is still not able to work, Finch states, and hopes that his music will soon provide him with a permanent career.

"Creation without accomplishment, that's what's discouraging," Finch said. "In the past I've always created for the sake of creating. But now it's necessary to assure health and make a living. I can't get music out of my system — I just have to compose. But when I finally gain recognition I want it to be on merit only."

Drive Approved

The City Council granted permission to the Los Angeles County Hear Association for conducting a fund-raising campaign here during February 1955.
