Torrance Choir on TV Talent Program

The Chancel Choir of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance will be featured on the Church Talent Hour Sunday, November 14, over KCOP, Channel 13, at 10 p.m.

The 28-voice singing group, which is directed by Professor Lloyd Todd, minister of music at the church, will be heard in three selections, "Beautiful Saviour," "Beside Still Waters" and "God Be With You."

Organized in 1926, the First Lutheran Church has grown with Torrance, and last summer moved into a new modern church building, erected at a cost of $125,000, to accommodate its increasing membership. For the past seven years the church, now located at Carson and Flower streets, has been guided by the Reverend Paul Wenske.

The Church Talent Hour, produced by Vern Vihlene for the Crane Co. and its dealers, is a weekly concert of religious music presenting gifted members of Southland churches to the television audience. Prizes and musical scholarships are awarded weekly winners selected on the basis of votes sent in by viewers.
