

Businessmen Asked To Aid Hospital Fund

"Please consider now what your contribution to the Torrance Hospital Building Fund Campaign will be," Paul D. Loranger, owner of Paul's Chevrolet, asked of Torrance area businessmen as the Group D business committee began its work this week. Paul Diamond, owner of the Gay Shop and co-chairman of the Group D business committee, emphasized that "every one of the businessmen on this committee knows the needs of the hospital, and each of them is doing his best to correct the present hospital situation by making this campaign successful."

Committee Members
In addition to Co-chairmen Loranger and Diamond, the members of Group D business committee are Dale Isenberg, Bob L. Haggard, Oscar Maples, King Williams, Sam Levy, Drs. John W. Beeman and Howard A. Wood, Judge John A. Shidler, Eldon Bowen and Mayor Nickolas O. Draie.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Lindsey, Jr., of 23415 President St., announce the birth of a son, Dale Alan, weighing 7 pounds and 2 ounces.

PERFECT FOR SHOPPING

"IT'S WONDERFUL to drive a Thunderbird" is Mrs. Vera Davis' reaction upon winning this miniature Ford model which will go five miles an hour. "I'll be the envy of every child in the neighborhood, Mrs. Davis, who lives at 1906 W. 222nd st., said upon winning the toy during the recent '55 showing of the new Ford at the local Oscar Maples Ford agency, 1420 Cabrillo. Here she waves good-bye to Oscar Maples.

Children Can Get Letter From Santa—Here's How

A real letter from Santa Claus, and posted from the frozen north, can once again add spice to the joys of Christmas for children.

As in previous years, Pan American and The Globe Trotters will do everything but lick the stamps and write the letter — parents and other well wishers have to do that. And here a word of warning about the letter: the promises are your own, too.

The letter will be posted near enough the North Pole to seem authentic—they will carry the post mark of Fairbanks, Alaska from out of which Santa operates during the busy Christmas season. Last year more than 100,000 children were astonished and delighted to find such letters addressed to them and signed by Santa. Here's how to go about it:

1. After committing the information to memory, burn this so it can't fall into the hands of children.

2. Get Santa Claus writing paper and envelopes from any Pan American office or The Globe Trotters, Travel Agents, 201 South Pacific Coast Highway, Redondo Beach.

3. Write the letter on the stationery and sign it Santa Claus.

4. Put the letter in the Santa envelope and address it to the offspring. Don't forget to put a 6-cent stamp on it.

5. In another envelope, mail the Santa letter by Air Mail to Pan American World Airways, Fairbanks, Alaska, its nearest station to the North Pole, or return it to the Pan American office or The Globe Trotters' office where the stationery was obtained.
