Mayor Buys Buxton Real Estate Firm

Purchase of Buxton Real Estate and Insurance company at 1960 Torrance boulevard, from Bronson C. Buxton, pioneer Torrance realtor, was announced this week by Mayor Nick Drale. Drale's family has been in the real estate business 30 years, the Mayor stated.

The office, which opened this week under the new ownership, will be known as Nick Drale Real Estate and Insurance and Fran's Letter Shop.

Letter Shop

The Mayor will share the new quarters with his wife, Mrs. Frances Drale, whose letter service includes all personal letter writing, mimeographing, and specialty items.

Their former office was located at 1311 Sartori. The new office will be open six days a week, Monday through Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Pioneer

Buxton, who has announced his intention to retire, was active locally in the real estate field for 27 years. He built, and moved into, the Torrance boulevard office 17 years ago.

Buxton, together with his wife, live at 1500 El Prado. They have two married daughters and five grandchildren.

Al Jarvis, Joe Yocam To Appear At Clark's Saturday

Al Jarvis, impresario of KFWE's "Make Believe Ballroom," his sidekick, Joe Yocam, and a trunk full of records and entertaining devices, will greet shoppers, youngsters and oldsters, at Clark's Market in Torrance at Hawthorne ave. and Pacific Coast Highway this Saturday, December 4 at 2 p.m.

Jarvis and Yocam will be there in person with their bag of tricks to stage a teen-age dance party with Al's mythical KFWE "Make Believe Ballroom" coming to life on a specially constructed stage and dance area adjoining the market.

The management of Clark's has extended invitations to all to attend the party. There will be no charge, in fact, canny shoppers will discover that Clark's is celebrating the occasion with one of the most exciting sales in its history.
