

NATIVITY CHURCH SCENE OF SCHAUWECKER RITES

Miss Elizabeth Marie Schauwecker became Mrs. Guy A. Milligan during a 9 a.m. Nuptial Mass at Nativity Catholic Church on Saturday, November 20.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anselm Schauwecker of 20902 Halldale, Torrance, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Milligan of 1926 West 147th street, Gardena, exchanged rings and vows before Rev. Robert Gara during the Mass celebrated at altars banked with white carnations and chrysanthemums.

Gown Described

The bride's dark beauty was enhanced by a tiara encrusted with pearls and rhinestones which held the chapel length veil applied with lace medallions. Her bridal gown was of lace and tulle over satin, with long pointed sleeves and winged collar of lace. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white carnations and a white prayer book, as she was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor Josephine Romero, was gowned in pale green taffeta which was complemented with the cascade of yellow chrysanthemums she carried, and also in green taffeta was Miss Bonnie Holloway, bridesmaid, who carried pink mums in a cascade bouquet.

Attending the groom as best man was Brooks Beckner, while Gary Triplett ushered.

Evelyn Treece Wed In Candlelight Rites

A candlelight ceremony united Miss Evelyn Rosella Treece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carl Treece, 1714 W. 257th street, Lomita, and James Dwain Keltner, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Keltner of 24735 Pennsylvania avenue, Lomita.

The Rev. Walter Graham officiated at the 8 p.m. nuptials November 23 in the Western Avenue Baptist Church of Harbor City.

Candlelighters were Beverly Cole and Bonnie Domonoske.

Maid of honor was Miss Zona Hammond, and bridesmaids were Misses Pat Treece, sister of the bride, and Elaine Boyd, the bride's cousin. The bridal attendants wore floor length gowns of pink with matching headpieces. Pink carnations composed their bouquets.

Bridal Gown

The bride's gown was of lace over satin and tulle, a tulle ruffle edging the lace overskirt which was fashioned in a semi-apron effect. A scalloped coronet of lace caught the lace-edged bridal veil, and her bouquet was a spray of pink roses and bouvardia centered with a white orchid.

Darrell Cole served as best man for the groom, who chose as ushers Malcolm Wyatt, Don Treece, Tommy Meyers, Frank Hillemeier, and Dean Domonoski.

Narbonne Graduates

The bride and groom, both graduates of Narbonne High School, were feted at a reception at the church following the nuptial ceremony, at which approximately two-hundred friends and relatives were present.

For the occasion, Mrs. Treece wore a simple black dress sparked with pink hat, gloves, and pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Keltner wore a gown of burnt almond shade with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids in blending tones.

Following their honeymoon up the coast of California, the newlyweds will reside at 25844 Narbonne avenue in Lomita. He is employed at American Can Company.

Bulletin Meet Held By Jaycettes

A "Bulletin Meeting" was held at the home of Mrs. Howard (Helen) Percy on Tuesday evening, November 23.

Those attending were Mrs. Fred (Grace) Hansen, Mrs. Clyde (Joan) Anderson, Mrs. Joseph (Dorothy) Banks and Mrs. John (Esther) D'Ornellas. Refreshments of coffee and donuts were served by the hostess, Mrs. Percy.

The club has decided to hold "Bulletin Meetings" once a month at a board member's home in order that the girls may get together and discuss coming events which will be placed in the club's bulletin. In this way each board member will be able to contribute news and ideas, thus making a bigger and better bulletin for the membership.

On Wednesday evening, December 3, the Hobby Show Planning Committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Joseph (Dorothy) Banks at 22315 Eastwood court, Torrance. At that time the group will discuss plans for the 1955 Hobby Show to be held in the spring.
