Church Group Sells Xmas Trees

Money collected from Christmas trees sold by members of the Hope Evangelical United Brethren church will be used for the construction of a new church, it was announced this week.

The trees are being sold on a lot at the present location of the church, 3347 W. 174th street. Both green and colored trees are available. The lot is open till 10 o'clock at night, it was revealed.

The project is under the direction of Howard Blank, Eddie Collins, and Clinton Beedan of the Church Brotherhood.

Final Call For Distinguished Service Award Nominations

With the thought in mind of publicly acknowledging the outstanding young man of the community, the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce is making a final plea today for anyone to stop in at the Chamber of Commerce building, El Prado near Cravens and pick up a nomination blank for entering the young man of their choice.

Chairman John Willd has set the deadline for entries to be postmarked December 16, 1954. Any young man over 21 and under 36 years of age may qualify and does not have to be a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Basis For Award

Selection of the recipient will be made by a committee of leading citizens here and the award is to be presented after approval of the committee's nominee by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce who affords the recognition through the local organization. The award is given to the young man the judges believe has contributed most to the welfare of this community during the past twelve months.

Mayor Nicholas Draie has proclaimed January 14-21 as "Junior Chamber of Commerce Week" in Torrance. The award will be presented at a banquet to be held on January 13.

JC Objective

President E. LaMar Buckner of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce has very clearly defined the purpose of

BPOElks

The Torrance Elks Lodge held election of officers at its weekly meeting last night, December 15, at the Alan Richards Hall.

Members and their friends were again reminded of the Elks' Christmas Charity Program under the chairmanship of F. W. Fahnstock. Money, food, and clothing is requested for needy families. Donors may call Fahnstock at FR 5-2640.
