LEAVING CHURCH . . . Following double ring wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Motta, nee Gayle Paulson, who were married recently in Western Avenue Baptist Church.

Gayle Paulson Wed To Thomas Motta

White chantilly lace and tulle underlaid with shimmering satin, fashioned the beautiful wedding gown worn by Miss Gayle Paulson when she exchanged rings and vows recently with Thomas Motta in the Western Avenue Baptist Church.

The wide cut neckline of the gown's fitted bodice was outlined with seed pearls and sequins, and the bridal veil was caught by a pearl-encrusted tiara. The bride carried a bouquet made up of two white orchids, carnations, and stephanotis.

Junior Entourage
Carrying her aunt's train was 7-year-old Patricia Paulson, who wore a floor-length hoop-skirted aqua dress, with a tiny matching hat.

In formal attire of white dinner jacket and dark trousers, was little 4-year-old Noel Alan Paulson, nephew of the bride, who solemnly bore the two gold wedding bands on the traditional white satin pillow.

Nadine Smithen, also 4, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of yellow net, matched by a headband of yellow carnations. In her basket she carried pink and white carnations.

Bride's Attendants
Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Richard Martin, who wore a floor-length dress of pale blue nylon tulle and taffeta, with a matching picture hat. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue and pink carnations.

Bridemaids were Miss Mary Sue Hunter and Mrs. William

Goss in pink tulle and taffeta with matching picture hats, carrying pink and white carnations and rosebuds en bouquet; Mrs. Marjorie Kitsrow and Miss Gail Gowdy in aqua tulle and taffeta, matching hats, and also colonial bouquets of blue and pink carnations and rosebuds.

Groom's Attendants
The groom, son of Mrs. Lewis Milkovich of 2062 225th street, Lomita, was attended by Robert Paulson as best man, while ushers were Keith Mayo, Don Rystrom, Lyle Barrett, Mike Tappi, and Richard Martin.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Paulson of 25017 Woodward, Lomita, was given in marriage by her father, while the nuptials were solemnized by Rev. Walter Graham of the Western Avenue Baptist Church in Harbor City. Tall tapers lighted the altar for the 8 p.m. ceremonies.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Narbonne High School, and she is employed by the Automobile Club in Los Angeles. The groom is in the lathing business with his brother-in-law.

Feted by Shower
A week prior to the wedding, the couple was feted at a miscellaneous shower by friends

Torrance Bethel 50 Holds Installation

Carol Maloy Installed as Queen Elect

The International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 50, held its fifty-fifth semi-annual public installation of officers last week Saturday evening, December 11, at 8 p.m. in the Torrance Masonic Temple. Carol Maloy being installed as honored queen.

The program was opened by the address of welcome given by Raymond Lougee, master of ceremonies. Bethel Guardian Mrs. Pearl Thayne, and associate guardian Leonard Babcock followed the master of ceremonies, and retiring honored queen Janice Crabtree was escorted by Babcock while soloist Harold Holmes sang.

Candlelight Ceremony
As candles illuminated the darkened room, the Bethel Choir and incoming officers entered through a triangle, and walked to their seats in triangle formation. Soloist Holmes sang again as Honored Queen elect entered the room.

The invocation was given by Rev. Donald Shelby, followed with the escort of the flag by June Gold, honored queen of Bethel 112. After taking the obligation to be faithful to their office, the new officers and choir were installed. The elective officers then took their stations with guide and mar-

Joy of Giving Emphasized By Students

To emphasize the joy of giving, children at Seaside Elementary School last Friday, December 17, brought gifts of canned goods or toys to be given to charitable organizations for distribution, instead of the customary exchange of gifts among each other.

"White Christmas" was the theme carried out at the three assemblies, with Santa Claus on hand, as the children filed past the tall Christmas tree, presenting their gifts, all wrapped in white paper.

According to Lloyd Jones, principal, this is the second year the Seaside P-TA has distributed gifts from the children to needy families.

In this way, he said, the children are brought to realize the joy and satisfaction of giving to others, especially to those less fortunate.

shal, Susan Babcock and Linda Thayne.

Senior and junior princesses were Sally Speck and Diane Allen. As the new Honored Queen, Carol Maloy, knelt at the altar and placed her hands on the Holy Bible, she was crowned queen by retiring Honored Queen Janice Crabtree.

Receives Gavel
The proclamations and presentations were made as Miss Maloy received her gavel and Miss Crabtree her past honored queen's pin. After the pins were handed down, Deputy Grand Guardian Mrs. Babcock and other dignitaries were escorted to the east for introduction.

"My Task" was the theme of the newly installed honored queen, and purple and white were the colors chosen. Bouquets of white carnations mounted on purple and white triangles fashioned by Bernice Snow, were carried by members of the group.

New Officers
The newly installed officers are: outer guard, Laverne Lewis; inner guard, Sharon Allison; senior custodian, Judy Cook; junior custodian, Janelee Bristow; chaplain, Beverly Sowle; librarian, Judy Powell; musician, Becky Candler; treasurer, Marily Moss; recorder, Maurine Bradford; first messenger, Judy Elston; second messenger, Gail Davis; third messenger, Kay Smith; fourth messenger, Sharon Neely; fifth messenger, Gayle Carothers.

The installing officers were: guide, Janie Moffatt P.H.Q.; marshal, Carol Campbell P.H.Q.; chaplain, Donna Pat Wolf P.H.Q.; senior custodian, Mary Ann Ferguson P.H.Q.; junior custodian, Ann Sciarrotta P.H.Q.; and musician, Janet Vigil, all of Bethel 50 and recorder Shirley Henderson, P.H.Q. of 112.

The hostesses and ushers were Barbara Collings, Mary Embree, Ronnie Thayne and Dale Fox.

Reception
A reception was held upstairs following the ceremonies, and cake and punch were served in the Christmas tree-decorated reception room.

Hazel Viets Logue has been hired as a substitute teacher by the Torrance Board of Education.

GIRL SCOUTS TO CHEER HOSPITAL TOTS TODAY

Christmas carols will echo outside the Children's ward at Harbor General Hospital today, December 21, when the Girl Scouts of Troop 831, which is sponsored by Halldale P-TA, sing for the patients. At this time their leaders, Mesdames Judson Bowers and Oren Deuschle will give stuffed animals made by the scouts, to the young patients.

At the conclusion of the caroling the scouts will go to Mrs. Deuschle's home at 21814 Halldale avenue, where they will exchange gifts and have their party.

Tomorrow December 22, the group will go to see "Cinerama" in Hollywood.

Participating in the activities will be Lenora Caltri, Maxine Clark, Sherry Balko, Regina Carlton, Charlie McNeese, Shelah Ehrlich, Judy Hill, Janet Hubbard, Karen Karcher, Margaret O'Meara, Sandra Rhoads, Cheryl Stevens, and Bette Wharton.
